Children Will Aid Others; Have Fun at Same Time

Children of Orinda who go to the circus when it comes to Oakland May 20 through May 24 have a treat in store!

The Polack Bros. 1959 edition of the universally loved circus promises to be a whiz bang from advance notices.

BUT ORINDA children will not only be having a wonderful time when they attend, they'll be assuring necessary medical care for thousands of East Bay children.

This year, for the second time, the circus will be sponsored by the branches of Children's Hospital of the East Bay in order to provide funds for the party-pay program which last year gave $326,456 in medical care.

Hospital records disclose that 36,514 visits were made to the outpatient clinic last year. In addition, 8,314 children were cared for as bed patients under the part-pay plan. Specialized services were given, too. Physical therapy performed 857 treatments for part-pay patients, 21,457 laboratory services were given and 512 surgical operations were performed.

THE PART-PAY plan works well for families with limited financial means. Parents pay only what they can afford for medical care. The difference between that amount and the cost to the hospital is made up with funds earned by the branches, an auxiliary of about 3,500 women.

Private patients benefit too from funds earned by the branches. Many of the major improvements at the hospital have been made possible through efforts of the branches. Research underway in various areas of childhood diseases is assisted by these earnings.

Right now, branch members in Orinda are selling tickets to the circus. Orinda Branch and Mayten Branch, two local branches, and members of other hospital branches who live in the area, are trying to put a ticket in the hand of every child who wants to see the circus. Of course, since young and old love to see this favorite pageant of the ages, adults are urged to come along.

PERFORMANCES will be in the Oakland Auditorium Arena at the following times: matinees Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 3:30 p.m.; matinee on Saturday at 2:30 p.m.; matinees Sunday at 1 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. Evening performances Wednesday through Saturday will begin at 8:15 p.m.

Lions Club Men And Wives Attend Hoberg Meetings

Lions Club delegates took part in the District 4C3 (Alameda-Contra Costa Counties) Lions international convention held last weekend at Hobergs, Lake County.

MORE THAN 500 delegates and their ladies made it the largest convention of any service club held there in years.

"Lionism continues to be the fastest growing service club in the world because it is a club of men who are men of action. They have pledged themselves to the cause of being service-minded men, and their record of achievements — from giving eyeglasses to a little girl to building a complete recreation building for the sightless people of the community — speaks loudly of good works by men interested in their family, their community and the world," declared District Governor Tom Aspland to delegates.

The local delegation was led by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Wade. He is president-elect of Orinda Lions.

Others attending were the Jack Rechtienes and the Mario Albos.

Foreign Students Present Panel Discussion

Seven foreign exchange students presented a panel discussion for the Miramonte High School student body Tuesday to tell about their impressions of America.

THE MEMBERS of the panel were: Tony Hefte from Norway, Brigitt Hageli from Switzerland, Nerol Sever from Turkey, Heidrun Hueltemann from Germany, "Joe" Ismale from Indonesia, Martin from Argentina, and Linda Lancione, Miramonte senior who went to France on the program last summer.

One of the most important questions asked these sutdents was concerned with communism.

Heidrun said that in Germany the communists are hated and the United States is looked upon as a "big brother," but the German people want most of all to be united again into one nation and to become completely independent. Nerol mentioned that in Turkey communism is strictly forbidden, even to talk about. This is, she said, especially true because Turkey is surrounded by Russian countries.

Both Nerol and "Joe" thought the ambassadors and people representing the United States living in their countries had given them a bad impression of America. The American ambassador in Turkey only learned two Turkish words after being in the country two years. "Joe" expressed the feeling of the country of Indonesia when he said his people resent the seemingly millionaires of this country who ruin the roads with their tremendous cars. In Indonesia cars are relatively unknown.

Interesting customs and policies of the varoius countries were discussed. "Joe" spoke for all of the students when he said "By learning about other countries through the Foreign Exchange Program, we can take the best of each culture and combine them into one great culture."

It's Not Too Late to Buy Barnyard Benefit Tickets

A flutter of dinner parties before and even a breakfast after are among festivities planned around the "Barnyard Benefit" spring dance tomorrow night from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. in two scenes, under the stars at Phair's Country Store Lot and under the roof of Jim Hendrickson's Orinda Motors building.

Tickets may be obtained in advance today and tomorrow through ticket chairmen Mrs. William Gilmore, 33 Acacia Drive, telephone CL 4-3149 and Mrs. Gordon French, 33 Stanton, telephone CL 4-3478.

Tickets also will be available at the door tomorrow night, according to general chairman Mrs. C. W. Brock, Jr.

Proceeds from the colorful dance will buy books and other needed items for Orinda school. Tickets are $3 per couple.

Besides two jazz bands, a trio of singers, and a host of prizes to be awarded, an additional entertainment feature will be Mrs. Thomas (Jody) Hood of Orinda, who will sing American folk songs, accompanying herself on the steel-stringed guitar.

There will be two bars, and hot sandwiches available.

Among the many parties planned for the "Barnyard Benefit" will be those of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Parry, who have scheduled cocktails before and breakfast after the dance for guests Mr. and Mrs. Clayton May, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Orr and Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown.

In answer to inquiries received, chairman Mrs. Brock said today that the "corny attire" called for in invitations to the dance may include jeans and straw hats or bright summer cottons for the distaff side, and sport shirts and jeans or casual trousers for the men.

Another dinner party planned before the dance will have as host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. John Gilbert.

The Gilberts' guests will include Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Avram Yedidia and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Martin. Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kendall will entertain with buffet and cocktails more than 50 at a party at their home before the dance. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller will have a dinner party tomorrow night, also.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon French will have as dinner guests in honor of the "Barnyard Benefit" the Messieurs and Mesdames John T. Sullivan, Eugene Hardester, Douglas Raaka and Dr. and Mrs. Patrick Golden.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Petersen will be dinner hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ficken, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Maclean and Mr. and Mrs. John Jeffery.

Mr. and Mrs. William Calhoun and Mr. and Mrs. William Gilmore will join forces to entertain at dinner before the dance the Messieurs and Mesdames L. P. Odenthal, John J. Reilly, Charles Coburn, Coleman Huntley, Harold Ohleyer, George Merriam, W. W. Lee, Frederick Crawshaw, Julian Unrun and Alberto deGrassi.

Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall will have as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walker and Mrs. Otis Hanson.

Glorietta's Fun Fair To Feature School Principal

Glorietta School's principal Jack Clark will be one of the prime attractions at the School's Gay Nineties Fun Fair May 16.

As well as being a wonderful school principal he is also an experienced square dance caller and will demonstrate his abilities along that line between 7 and 9 p.m. at the Fair.

THE TWO hours of square and folk dancing will take place in the all-purpose room at the school under his expert leadership.

Ice cream, hot dogs, cold drinks, popcorn will be served all during the day at the Fair and in addition baked beans will be served from 5 to 7 for those who desire a heartier supper.

Details of feeding the large crowd expected to attend are being handled by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Deahl and their committee.

Group All Set To See 'Rivals'

"Orinda's Theater Party," Friday, May 15 at the Lafayette Town Hall is beginning to take shape, according to Mrs. C. V. Scarich, publicity chairman of the Orinda Beautification Committee.

The occasion is the opening night of "The Rivals," a play performed by the Dramateurs.

The night of the 15th is being sponsored by the Beautification Committee to raise money to maintain current civic landscaping projects and to buy pink flowering chestnuts for Bryant Way and the entrance to Orinda Park Manor.

William Penn Mott, advisor to the committee, feels these trees will add a great deal to make Orinda more attractive from the highway.

The theater party is being sponsored by the garden clubs and civic organizations who are represented on the beautification committee. All who have helped on landscaping projects, or who are interested in making Orinda more attractive, are invited to join the party.

Good entertainment, free refreshments and fun have been promised by the committee.

Tickets at $1.50 may be obtained through the Moraga Nursery or through Clarence Betz of the Chamber of Commerce.

School Board Will Meet With Parents

At the invitation of Miramonte parents, Acalanes High School District trustees will meet with Miramonte parents Monday evening for a general discussion of the educational program of the schools in the district.

The meeting is part of the regular monthly Miramonte Parents Club program.

Since trustees are on the Parent Club program that night, they will hold the regular board meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the Miramonte multi-use building instead of the district administrative offices.

Lucas Nominated For Presidency Of Local Chamber

Jim Lucas was nominated this week for president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Members met at their regular noon meeting held in Casa Orinda.

Named for vice presidency of the organization was Bill Polk.

UP FOR election to the board of directors include John Hall, Chet Clark, Ken White, Bill Saunders, Ken Courtright and John Ogden, current president.

Clarence Betz, chamber secretary, is up for re-election.

Elections will take place at the group's next regular meeting May 26.

A speaker of the day was Richard Dunnivan, manager of the Pleasant Hill branch of the Bank of America.

He explained the bank's new credit plan.

Col. William Browly spoke against Senate Bill 865 which permits East Bay Municipal District to bring the fluoridation question to a vote by the people.

BETZ EXPLAINED that the chamber has not endorsed fluoridation but has endorsed S. B. 865.

Bud Leiber, vice president, presided over the meeting in the absence of Ogden.

Class Parents Invited to Final Meeting

Miramonte Parents Club has invited the parents of the 1959-1960 freshman class to a final meeting of the year Monday.

Neil Parsons, Acalanes High School District Superintendent, and the members of the board of trustees will give short presentations on the subjects curriculum, transportation, building program, tax problems, and unification.

There will be an opportunity for questions to be answered on any problems concerning the high school.

The meeting will be held in the cafeteria.

Orinda Association Invites Commentary

By JACK SEYMOUR

The general plan for Orinda will be the subject of an informal, public meeting to be held Monday at 8 p.m. at Orinda School.

Sponsored by the Orinda Association, the preliminary plan prepared by the county will be presented.

Representatives of all community organizations have been invited to discuss the plan with members of the county planning staff.

According to Don Anderson, association president, "the preliminary plan prepared by the county will be presented at the meeting."

ANDERSON ADDED that the comments and criticism of those attending are invited.

Anderson added that some time after the meeting there will be public hearings in Martinez to consider the area's general plan.

Adoption of the plan by the county planning commission and staff is not the end of the matter, however, he stated.

In the past, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors has heard appeals and disagreements with the master plan after adoption by the planning commission.

AFTER A YEAR'S time, a master plan is reviewed by the planning commission and the planning staff to determine whether there have been any major areas of change in the community which would call for a change in zoning or other planning matters.

Anderson explained the Orinda Association has worked with the staff of the planning commission in the preparation of the general plan for Orinda and in particular the association's planning committee has been active in the obtaining of "a sensible zoning" for the greater Orinda area.

A general invitation was sent out by Anderson to the residents asking them to attend the meeting and bring up particular points of interest or to explain problem areas.

AFTER THE FORMAL public hearings are called, the law demands at least two public hearings to be held by the Planning Commission before the adoption of findings by the commissioners.

In the past, such proposed master plans as the General Plan for Pleasant Hill, have gone through six months of hearings prior to final adoption.

School Board Candidates Talk At Glorietta

A candidates meeting was held in the all-purpose room of the Glorietta school last Wednesday.

Residents of the area heard candidates for Orinda Union School District Board and Acalanes High School Board.

Rudolph O. Monosmith, head of the California State 4-H Clubs, was moderator.

The meeting was sponsored by the American Association of University Women, Orinda Branch and by the Concord-Diablo Valley League of Women Voters.

Mrs. Reith A. Harrington Jr., chairman of the education section of the AAUW and Mrs. Andrew Hartanov, voters service chairman for the League, arranged details of the meeting.

A news story in last week's edition of The Sun gave the date as May 9. This was in error.

Sleepy Hollow Parents Club Set TV Panel

The Parents' Club Meeting of the Sleepy Hollow School will hold their last meeting of the year on Tuesday, May 12 at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the school.

"Television and Our Children" is the subject chosen for a panel discussion.

Jay Jacobus will act as moderator.

THE OTHER members on the panel include Dr. Lloyd Scott from the U.C. Dept. of Education. Thomas F. Mullahey from KRON. Dr. Richard R. Lininger, Psychiatrist.

Bruce Howard and Mrs. Shirley Crawshaw will represent the parents.

After a brief talk by the members on the panel, they will answer questions submitted from the floor.

This subject should be of interest to all parents of Kindergarten through 6th grade children in the Orinda School District.

New officers for the 1959-60 Committee will be installed at this meeting including Clarence Woodard as president, Mrs. Charles H. Beckett, vice president, Fenn Wilson, treasurer.

Mrs. D. E. Hutchinson, recording secretary and Mrs. Oliver P. Pearson, corresponding secretary.

Services Held For Mr. Hoyer

Reuben Theodore Hoyer, 60, died April 27 from a heart attack.

Mr. Hoyer suffered the attack while driving from work in El Cerrito to his Orinda home. Apparently sensing that the attack was coming, he pulled his car to the curb moments before the attack came.

An accountant, Mr. Hoyer was dead on arrival at Brookside Hospital in Richmond.

"Hoyer showed great presence of mind to pull over when he felt the attack coming," said the investigating officer.

Hoyer was born September 6, 1898 in South Dakota. For the past 20 years he had resided at 3 Madrone Place. He had built the home himself.

Surviving are Mr. Hoyer's wife, Beryl, and three children—Joan Carolyn, Roger Allen and Roy Eugene.

Mr. Hoyer also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Ann Laugier of Santa Rosa, Mrs. T. Ellen Montgomery of Hawaii, and Mrs. Esther Tower of Richmond, and one brother, Carl Hoyer of Pomona.

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Hoyer served with the U.S. Navy. He was educated at the University of California and Armstrong College, and had been a partner in the Apex Bronze Foundry for many years.

Mr. Hoyer was active in municipal and social affairs. He belonged to various home, family, and garden groups, and had served for several years with the cub scouts.

Funeral services were held yesterday at the Little Chapel of the Flowers, Berkeley. Interment was at Sunset Cemetery.

Parishoners Turn Out to Show 'Talents Unlimited'

MORE THAN 200 members of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church turned out to pose for these pictures to dramatize the unique fund-raising program, "Talents Unlimited." Hundreds of persons have volunteered to perform services with proceeds g ing to the building fund. In this panoramic photograph by Rod Lomas and posed especially for The Sun, some of the volunteers display their talents. There are men selling plants, artists painting portraits, dance lessons given. Women get permanents, an auction is held, a ranch wagon s ands by for errand service. A boy gives a magic show, letters are typed. And there are plenty of baby sitters. It took three hours last Sunday to set up the physical part of the picture. During the weeks before the "Talents Unlimited" staff worked hours phoning volunteers, arranging for props. The entire production was under the direction of Mrs. Lyndon Vivrette. Handled like a military maneuver, church members were assigned areas to report. Young people acted as aides and ushers. Members of The Sun staff participated.
—Sun photo by Rod Lomas.

Approximately 200 persons turned out last Sunday to demonstrate their "talents unlimited" at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

This was a mass demonstration to show the parishoners' unique project to earn money for the church.

Dubbed "Talents Unlimited," the drive was launched in April, when silver dollars symbolizing Biblical talents were distributed to the congregation following services.

It will continue through May and June.

TO DATE 117 families, representing the participation of an estimated 250 individuals, have registered their "specialties" with the church office and more are signing up each day.

Among the more usual services offered are Fleishhacker Zoo tours, magic shows, auctions, and lessons in modeling, French, chess, bridge, dancing, tennis, piano, accordion, nad flute.

ARTISTS HAVE volunteered to paint portraits, and professional persons are pledging portions of their fees or particular hours of their work.

One of the more Herculean of the individual projects has been the one-man cake sale staged by Carl Daughters, 12, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Andrew Daughters.

Daughters was, until this month, assistant to the rector at St. Stephen's.

Carl, who is a sixth grader at Vallecito school, baked and frosted 18 cakes, and sold them after church one recent Sunday.

After deducting the cost of materials, he turned in $15 to the drive.

THE LARGEST category of products offered for sale is, as might be expected in a suburban community, home cooked foods, including many gourmet specialties suitable for freezing or made to order.

Housewives have also volunteered to sew, knit, baby sit, wash dishes and clean.

Men of the congregation are offering their services as gardeners, repair men, and for general odd job work.

Teen-agers and younger children are getting into the act with car washing, baby sitting, bottle collecting and lawn mowing.

A NOT-UNEXPECTED dividend of the drive has been the blossoming of new friendships as members of the congregation patronize each others' services or offer their services to the community.

MONEY FROM the project will be used to help finance the church building program, which will include a new church school unit, parish hall, and the enlargement of the church itself.

Mrs. Carl Uhlhorn has served as chairman of the drive with the enthusiastic cooperation of the heads of all church organizations. The Rev. Albert Lucas is rector of the church.

DOING HIS SHARE is St. Stephen's Church's rector, the Rev. Albert Lucas who shined shoes with proceeds going to "Talents Unlimited." Hundreds of church members have volunteered to do all kinds of interesting and often strange tasks. Donated funds go toward the building fund. —Sun photo by Rod Lomas.

SANTA MARIA PARISH will construct this school adjoining its present church. Anderson and Simonds are the architects.

Santa Maria Church Will Build School and Convent

Santa Maria Catholic Church this week announced plans for a new school and convent.

The school will be constructed above the existing top-level parking lot and the convent will be built next to it.

Exterior of the buildings will harmonize with those of the church early California Spanish.

The school will consist of eight classrooms, administrative offices, library, nurse's room, storage room and covered corridors.

Classrooms will be lighted by full size windows and heated by forced-air heaters. A paved play area will be installed behind the school.

The three-story convent will be built to the left of the school in a grove of oak trees. The building will consist of a community room, dining room, kitchen, office, chapel, and sleeping quarters for sisters.

Grading work has started, and the buildings are scheduled for completion in 10 months, according to the Rev. David J. Harrington, pastor. The school will open in September, 1960.

Teaching nuns will be the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet.

Site development is an important part of the program and included in this portion of the work is asphalt paving consisting of a play yard for the school children at the rear of the school, as well as a paved roadway to get up to this rear play yard, and paved roads and concrete approach deck leading to the garage on the basement level of the convent, as well as parking facilities in front of the chapel for the occasional visitor to the convent.

A sidewalk, curb and gutter will be built the entire extent of the parking lot and two ramps will lead up the sidewalk to the central stairway entrance. There will be a private level garden terrace to the north of the convent for the use of the Sisters. There will be the necessary walks, retaining walls, exterior staris, flagstones, etc., so that landscape development may start immediately to further enhance the appearance of the entire project.

Police Protection Offered Orinda for 17c per $100

Orinda can have 24-hour a day police protection for an additional 17 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, according to a report prepared by County Administrator J. P. McBrien.

The report, which was made at the request of Second District Supervisor Mel F. Nielsen, shows it would cost approximately $45,000 additional to give complete protection to the Orinda area.

THE PRINCIPAL findings of the study and its affect on the Orinda Union School District area are:

"1. That extended police protection services may be provided by the establishment of a county service area for police protection. Authorization for this action is contained in the government code, enacted in 1958.

"2. That the Board of Supervisors adopted a resolution on July 9, 1957, indicating that the county would negotiate with cities for contractual police protection services at cost. This authorization could be extended to cover the cost of providing extended police protection services through districts.

"3. THAT THE extended coverage recommended for the Orinda School District consists of a one-man patrol car on duty around the clock in each area.

"4. That the cost of providing extended coverage through the sheriff's department at the level of service recommended would cost approximately $45,000 in the district, or the equivalent of 16 cents on the tax rate in the Orinda School District.

The possibility of providing extended police protection services through the Sheriff's Department has been considered in Contra Costa County for several years. The question, McBrien pointed out, has arisen specifically in connection with the proposed incorporation of Lafayette, Pleasant Hill and Pacheco.

"Pursuant to a request from this office, the district attorney researched and in 1955 ascertained that authorization for a general law county to engage in contracts for the provision of services appears to be contained in the government code," he noted.

"It should be observed in this connection that authorization for county contracts with other jurisdictions is specifically provided for in the Los Angeles County charter, the county which has gone fartherest in the direction of providing services by contract," he added.

McBrien continued by saying:

"The question of the level of police protection services is obviously a very subjective one. In this study it is presumed that the principal additional desire of the people in Orinda is for additional patrol services, not the enforcement of local parking and traffic regulations, which a municipality might enact.

"The question of the level of police protection which should be recommended for Orinda was discussed with Harry Ramsey, undersheriff, April 17.

"Ramsey suggested that one patrolman and one car on duty around the clock in the two areas might be a reasonable level of service.

"The manning of patrol cars with one rather than two patrolmen around the clock was suggested as satisfactory coverage in a limited area with the socio-economic character of Orinda particularly in that the beat officers would have the full resources of the sheriff's department in reserve should the occasion demand," McBrien opined.

"IF THE EXTENDED service level of one man around the clock is accepted for each area, and a figure of $7500 accepted for overhead, it would appear that extended police services could be provided in Orinda for approximately $45,000 per annum.

"The principal cost item would be the salaries of the 4.8 patrolmen required to man one post around the clock, approximately $35,000, including retirement and fringe benefits.

"Such costs will, of course, change as service levels, wage rates, or district valuations change," he maintained.

"The assessed valuation in the Orinda School District (1958-59) amounted to $26,466,365. Therefore, a tax of 17 cents per $100 in the Orinda School District would defray the estimated expenditure of $45,000," McBrien concluded.

Al's Polka Dot Completes First Successful Year

Al Morris, owner of Al's Polka Dot Restaurant has just celebrated his first anniversary and is going into his second year.

He has thanked his many friends for his success in the past year and looks forward to seeing both old and new customers in the future.

His restaurant at 17 Orinda Way in Orinda Village caught on in popularity as soon as Al opened the doors a year ago.

It is a favorite rendezvous for the hamburger-and-malt set and with housewives who just drop in for a cup of coffee.

Al's many firends have wished him many more years of success.

Sleepy Hollow Parents Will Hear Panel

The Parents' Club meeting of the Sleepy Hollow School of Orinda will hold their last meeting of the year Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of the school.

Indian Guide Parents Have Informal Meet

Mothers and fathers of the "Y" Indian Guides were able to get better acquainted at an informal gathering in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Cavalli, 16 Dolores Way Tuesday evening.

Special guests for the evening were Donald Manuel and Harry Clemons, both of whom are active in Indian Guides and are also candidates for election to the Orinda Union School Board.

In talking to the parents, Manuel emphasized the importance of communicating to the clientele served by the school board, the problems encountered in its operation.

"In this way, we can obtain greater cooperation and support from the parents in the policies adopted by the board.

"To continue the high level of educational achievement in the Orinda School District, we cannot remain static; but through continual vigilance, we can see that changes are made where they are warranted," Manuel stated.

James Hannan Named To College Group

A Dartmouth College junior from Orinda, was recently named to Palaeopitus, senior executive governing body at the college.

He is James T. Hannan Jr., a son of Mrs. James T. Hannan of 20 Las Vegas Road. He was graduated from Acalanes High School.

Palaeopitus members are chosen from the undergraduate, inter-fraternity and interdormitory councils, and the student body as a whole.

It oversees the actions and affairs of the main student governing body, the undergraduate council.

County Taxpayers Oppose Employees' Hike Request

The Contra Costa County Taxpayer's Assocaition is opposing a 10 per cent overall increase in salary sought by the County Employees Association.

The oppostion was voiced at the Tuesday meeting of the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors in Martinez.

THE TAXPAYER group commented it had carefully examined the county salary schedule for some 2421 employees and found it could only consider pay increases for some 918 individuals.

One or two step raises, five to ten per cent seem to be justified for 243 individuals, the association said.

Raises for an additional 387 should be considered only if raises are granted the same positions by other Bay Area employers, the association continued.

No position was expressed on raises for an additional 288 individuals. The taxpayer unit said information on which to base a decision was not available.

HARRY L. Morrison, association executive director, stated that of 1593 jobs examined, these positions are five per cent ahead of what is paid by other Bay Area employers and that no increase in salary could be justified at this time.

The association also opposed the payment of the full $10 cost of health insurance. The county at present pays $5 and the employee $5.

The group also opposed the payment of time and a half for overtime instead of straight time as at present and opposed the granting of five per cent longevity raises for 10 to 20 years of service.

The taxpayer association went on record in favor of paying a person a higher rate of salary while in the position of a superior while the superior is ill.

County Granted $28,900 In Civil Defense Monies

Harold G. Robinson, director, today announced that the California Disaster Office assisted city and county civil defense organizations in obtaining approximately $457,258 in federal matching fund assistance for procurement of civil defense equipment and for civil defense training during the first three-quarters of the current fiscal year.

Contra Costa received $28,900.23 in federal financing to further its civil defense program during the period, Robinson said.

FEDERAL contributions were made during the July-through-March period for purchase of such items as communications equipment to strengthen the local fire and police capability for civil defense; local warning systems and generators to supply electricity, heat and light to public buildings, civil defense control centers and hospitals; and training programs.

Under the federal matching funds program, cities and counties contributed one-half of the total amount for these items.

Purpose of the program, authorized under the Federal Civil Defense Act of 1950, is to provide state and their political subdivisions with financial assistance by contributing one-half the cost of approved civil defense equipment, supplies, and some training activities.

In order the participate in the program, local civil defense organizations must have prepared an approved civil defense operational plan, and filed it with the California Disaster Office.

EACH APPLICATION for federal funds must be specific as to the manner in which the supplies or equipment are to be used, as the whole purpose of the program is to build up the local community's strength from a civil defense standpoint, Robinson said.

In Contra Costa County for communications the federal share will be $18,982.96 of an estimated total program costing $38,547.16.

Walnut Creek will receive $1160.75 out of a total need for communications funds of $3381.50.

The Central Fire Protection District will be granted $500 with matching federal funds and the Mt. Diablo Fire Protection District will get $775. Orinda Fire Protection District will receive an additional $863.50.

Other areas in the county which will be granted federal monies are Kensington, Pittsburg and Richmond.

THE VALLEY ART CENTER will present a two-man show at Orchard Nursery May 15 and 16. The show will feature the work of Alexander Nepote and Peter Blos. Here Mrs. Harold Powell and Mrs. William Zion address invitations to the event. Sun photo by Rod Lomas.

Vacation, Boat Show Coming to Broadway Center

Landlubbers and seasoned sailors alike will be welcome at the Broadway Shopping Center Vacation and Boat Show Thursday, next Friday and Saturday, May 16, according to George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association.

"There'll be plenty of free prizes for our visitors in addition to the display of fine sea craft and vacation trailers which will be a key part of our Vacation and Boat Show," Webster commented.

"To be given away at the Broadway Shopping Center will be a motor, water skiis, ice chest, life preservers, paddles, etc.," Webster added.

"As usual, there will be no purchase necessary to win, just drop an entry blank into any of Broadway's many fine stores which will be participating in the vacation and boat show Thursday, next Friday and Saturday, May 16, Webster explained.

Two-Man Art Show to be Held at Valley Center

The paintings of two of Northern California's most prominent artists will be presented at a two-man show by the Valley Art Center of Lafayette, at the Orchard Nursery, 4011 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, May 15-16. Approximately 30 original works of Alexander Nepote and Peter Blos will be on display, according to Mrs. P. H. Converse, Vally Art Center exhibition chairman.

FORMERLY dean of the faculty at the California College of Arts and Crafts, Nepote is at present professor of art at San Francisco State College. He has been honored with many awards, including the $500 Patrons of Art and Music Award for 1958, California Palace of the Legion of Honor and numerous others including prizes at San Francisco Art Festival, California State Fair and Pasdena Art Museum.

Nepote's work is owned by the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Oakland Art Museums, Mills College, University of Michigan, Los Angeles County Museum and many others.

Many national and international exhibitions have included his work, among them being Sao Paulo Biennial, Brazil; American Art of our Time, 1958, Provincetown, Mass.; and American Painting, University of Illinois.

NOW TEACHING at Peninsula Arts and Crafts, Burlingame, widely-known Peter Blos was born in Munich, Bavaria, where he studied with Heyman and painted at the State Academy.

Following several years of study in France, Blos came to U.S. in 1931 and has lived in the Bay Area greater part of the time.

The recipient of over 50 distinguished awards and prizes, he is perhaps best known for his portraits which are owned throughout U.S. and abroad.

SOME OF his most remarkable works were the result of frequent painting trips to the Navajo and Hopi reservations.

Blos is a member of Society of Western Artists, East Bay Artists Association and Oakland Museums Association.

Hostesses for the preview party to be held Friday evening, May 15 will include Mrs. Howard Holmes, social chairman; Mrs. William Zion, Mrs. John Menz, Mrs, Morris Monheit, Mrs. Mabel Powell, Mrs. Julien Stern, Mrs. E. F. Cardin, Mrs. Stanley Coffee, Mrs. Richard Johnston, Mrs. Alverus Lund and Mrs. William Voyt.

New Provincial Named for Area

Word has been received from Rome that Brother Timothy Jerome, F.S.C., has been appointed provincial-visitor of the San Francisco Province of the Christian Brothers. He replaces Brother U. Alfred, F.S.C., who has been the provincial leader of this religious order of men dedicated exclusively to teaching, for the past 15 years.

Brother Jerome, presently director of Saint Mary's College High School in Berkeley, and a trustee of Saint Mary's College, will take office on June 30 of this year.

Heading the fourth largest district of Christian Brothers in the United States, he will be responsible for some 16 communities in California,

Fluoridation Ban Bill Is Killed By Legislators

California's Public Health Committee of the State Assembly flatly dumped a bill seeking the banning of fluoride in public water.

The committee, in Sacramento, before some 200 persons, voted against the measure introduced by Assemblyman Clark L. Bradley (R. Santa Clara), after hearing lengthy testimony on the issue.

CONTRA COSTA County was represented at the meeting in voice by resolutions against the bill passed by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors and several chambers of commerce as well as numerous individuals.

A San Francisco public health officer, where fluorine has been used in the water since 1951, testified 60-65 per cent of cavities have been eliminated in children's teeth.

Dr. Ellis Sox further testified the fluorine has had no bad effects on anyone since its inception into the public water system.

The bill, however, was defended by several doctors including dentists as a ban to mass medication measures and "the end of totalitarian philosophy."

BRADLEY INFORMED the committee that fluorine may be helpful in the fighting of dental decay, but its use should be left up to the individual.

The public health committee was informed that "99 per cent of the state's dentists and doctors are in flavor of fluoridation."

Supervisors Split On County Office Merger Proposal

In a split vote, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors merged two departments into one Tuesday in Martinez.

Consolidated were the offices of Sealer of Weights and Measures and Agricultural Commissioner.

Supervisor James P. Kenny of Richmond voted against the motion which will place the sealer's duties under the jurisdiction of the agricultural commissioner.

The integration was proposed several weeks ago by County Administrator J. P. McBrien, who commented the merger will save some $800 monthly and make for better utilization of manpower.

Kid Math Aspirants Vie In AAUW Area Contest

The second annual inter-high school mathematics competition, sponsored by the Walnut Creek Branch of the American Association of University Women for Central Contra Costa County, will be held Wednesday at 3:15 p.m. at Diablo Valley College.

Eight high schools have been invited to participate—San Ramon Valley High School, which had the winning team last year, and Las Lomas, Mt. Diablo, Pleasant Hill, Acalanes, Pacifica, Miramonte and Clayton Valley High Schools.

Teams of four students from each school will tackle a series of math problems given in the first half of the meet. The second half will consist of individual competition.

FOLLOWING THE meet a banquet will be held at the Diablo Valley College cafeteria at which the AAUW will award a trophy to the winning team to present to its school.

An individual trophy will be given the highest scoring student in the meet.

Mr. David Glover, math department and Robert Flanagan, also of the math department of the Diablo Valley College will evaluate testing results.

AAUW math committee members are Mrs. Paul A. Benjamin, chairman; Mrs. Lester R. Olsen, president; and Mrs. Frank J. Bertagnolli, Mrs. Louis E. Arnaud, Mrs. Robert K. Warner, Mrs. J. A. Buckley, Mrs. Dorr C. Yeager and Miss Margaret Nicholson.

MATHEMETICS chairmen from high schools will include Harold Oxsen of Acalanes, Norman Thomas of San Ramon Valley, Richard Wisowaty of Mt. Diablo, Robert Wignet of Las Lomas, Mrs. Helen Gray of Pleasant Hill, and Jack Criqui of Pacifica.

Others will be Lloyd D. Hunt of Miramonte and Mrs. James Woolum of Clayton Valley.

According to Mrs. Benjamin, team participation in problem solving has been enthustically received by the schools and is well on its way to being an annual spring event.

EBMUDLand Sale Law Is Proposed

Oakland Assemblyman Nike Petris has submitted a bill to the California State Legislature which would force the East Bay Municipal Utility District to call public hearings before disposal of any "surplus lands."

The measure provides that written notice of sale, or lease, of property for more than five years, would have to be filed with the State Park Commission and local planning agencies involved.

THE PARK commission would then be required to investigate, hold at least one public hearing and submit recommendations within 180 days.

If either the park commission or planning commission deemed the land suitable for recreation, its sale would be subject to approval of the voters at the next general election.

PETRIS SAID he had received considerable criticism concerning recent sale of East Bay Municipal Utility District properties to private interests.

Very Cold For May

THE BREEZE is b' ier, sneezes wheezier, nights are colder, but that could be cause we're getting older.

May is living up to her usual reputation. The minute the community pools are slated for opening, May gets a mean streak. The sky is full of marshmallow clouds & last Sat., every one of 'em, looked like a Dog Heaven of white French Poodles. Or Shaggy Dogs.

Maybe we've been seeing too many movies, but spkg. of Shaggy Dogs, we hope you've seen THAT show. At the Park, what a Lark! You'll almost bark, it's so funny.

MARY BARRETT & her boys sat behind us howling their heads off. Up front we glimpsed the Bob Hamptons & the Don Steeles guffawing. A picture like this one, good for what ails you.

SPKG. of Shaggy Dogs, you should see Atty. George Hauer's unclipped (for ages!) white french poodle. We like "Boofy" much better sans haircut & he (she?) looks like a duplicate of the dog in The Movie.

As for French poodles, the Hank Soubielles have a precious new pet name of "Jeanay," a woolly gray dainty thing that leaps through the air like a lithe little reindeer. Funnier than any floor show!

SHAGGY DOG STORY: One little 4-yr. old our acquaintance likes her eggs "pooched" in the morning . . . & a good little man on an errand for his Mom finally asked for help in Hagstrom's. He was sent, he said, to get a big can of Chicken (P) tomaine . . .

Buttons & Bows & Calicos

SILVA'S BARN at Diablo was like a freezer locker Sat. night till the big crowd attdg. the benefit Barn Dance hostessed by the Orinda Women's Club filled it up & thawed it out.

The Wesern-themed Whoop featured scarecrows & wagonwheels, box suppers & a County Fair Booth where prizes were awarded for the most attractive contributions in homemade potholders, preserves, etc.

There were "Blue Ribbons" for the decor committee, esp. Virginia Gregg & Louise Rich, for their long distance decorating duties well done.

EARLY arrivals were Jane & Bob Lester, Jane & Bill Rose, Marilyn & Ernie Haynes & Myron & Maxine Osmunson. THEY all hailing Jean Vicars w/a yodel of "Where's Your Horse?" Jean attded. w/friends since "Vic" is still in the East, wearing a complete Western riding habit.

Behind checker-clothed tables, the Jim Byerses, Bill Cannons & Fred Neilsens were busy dispensing the Box Suppers gaily bowed in calico.

BUTTONS & BOWS . . . Glorietta principal Jack Clark doing the calling during the "Squares" at intermission time . . . The Herm Pfeiffers in the crowd, Helen breathlessly whirling the floor.

Dancing to the combo of Jim Risco, (Cha-Cha-Cha?) were Elise & Gordon Markley, the Bob Sweeneys, Kathy & Ray West stealing a dance from staffing duties at the Country Store. In another group, the Ed Roberts, Con Smiths who were guests of the Hank Soubielles. The Dick Bottjers winning a Black's Food Basket!

ONE of the largest groups at the Country Caper were the guests of the Fred Dunns & the Eldon Parsons who had joined forces to co-host & an early conclave in the Dunn's brand new family room at their house on Meadow View.

Mostly neighbors, they were the Bill Fishers, John Garettos, Brooks Gardners, Robert McClanahans & the John Mortarottis. More at the Dunns for sipping & dipping were the Gene Pearsons, Leonard Pankonins, Neil Redds, Vic Viales' & the Al Walburgs.

Of Plantings & TRANSplantings

OPENING NITE, May 15, of the Dramateurs' new play "The Rivals" will benefit the Orinda Beautification Committee who will dispense free refreshments during the Intermish downstairs in the Laf. Town Hall, (our own new summer (winter, too) theater.) Tkts. are $1.50, a part of which will go toward the purchase of flowering trees for our fair town. Call Irene Hickox, for tkts. CL 4-5402, or Elva Rust, CL 4-3467. (P.S. to Elva . . . We hear you have a rare Polonia tree, too!)

SPRING MOVING . . . for the Murray McNeills of Berk. who transferred their Treasures (2 girls, 1 boy) into the contemporary redwood home at the end of Mariposa Lane, May 1. Murray, a Designer, gets his M.A. from U.C. in Architecture in June.

About a mo. ago, looking for a mover, Donna McNeill called Van-Man Jim Winfree & asked him to do their move-job. When it came time for the Orinda address, Donna went into a dissertation about how difficult it was going to be to tell him where the house & street were out here. Jim asked what street & sat back to chuckle when she told him. The Winfrees live just a stone's throw, up the hill.

When the Jim Davison family move, EASY DOES IT! Right through their old backyard into the new house they've built on the back hill.

BOB ROTH, Kaiser man whose family have been in Suburban Chicago for over a yr., was back in town last wknd. to see old friends. Transferred back, the Roths wil. take a house on Camino Sobrante & "Mike" (that's Mrs. R) will come out in June w/ the children.

MAY BUDS to bloom in DEC. at the Winter Ball are starting their Early-Whirling w/a Mother-Dghtr. Tea tomorrow at the home of presentation chrmn. Mrs. Willard Wilde. Local debs are Julie Allen, Carol Force, Freddie Lamb, Sandra Miller, Shelley Pond & Dana Tolles.

Becky Harris can hardly wait! She'll attend the Univ. of Hawaii this summer. Orinda's Mary McFarland & Earl Boles have both been named to the Camp staff at CAZADERO.

The Anniversary WALTZ will be danced over on Virg. Dr. Sun. by the parents of Naomi Porter. She & her husband Willard Neill Porter to host a 50th Yr. celebration, reception & buffet, for some 75 friends & family members in honor f the Peter Watsons of Chabt 75 friends & family members in honor of the Peter Watsons of Chabot Rd. Ring Dem Golden Bells!

In honor of June Bride Janis Armstrong, daughter of the James Armstrongs of Sleepy Hollow, Stella Byle hostessed a Surprise Kitchen Shower Fri. nite w/neighboring mothers & their children participating in the fun. Janis, First Bride to-be of St. James Ct., will wed Bud Dodge, son of the Nathaniel Dodges, on the 13th of that spoon-moon month.

"Where Did You Go?" Out.

TOMORROW—Rotary Field Day 10-2 Orinda School . . . & the PFer's annual Church Carnival at the Community grounds from 11 on, THIS to conclude w/a Teen Record Dance in the church parking lot from 8-11 P.M. Fun for everyone!

Down below, the much-anticipated Barnyard Frolic at Orinda Motors, Phair's lot will be off to a late start & a later ending judging from the long list of parties planned.

ONE of the biggest gatherings to be at the Spencer Kendall's Guests in gingham & checkered shirts at this one will be the Bill Brocks, Jay Ainsworths, Russ Gilwees, Robert Lee, Robert Thamans, Art Sassones, Walt Reudriches, Dick Kendall, Leon Pauls & the Roger Olsons.

MORE for the Blue Ribbon buffet will be the Phil Muscheids, Robert Thierritts, James Beattys, Robert Calous, Crete Baldwins, Ed & Jane Baker; Vivian Spaich, Janet Jansse & Jack Seymour.

The G. W. Millers have invited for early potables & potluck the Clint DeWitts, John McFarlands, James MacDonalds, Paul Slatterys, Jim Hendricksons, & Ewart Phais. The Howard Bells & Alan Seareys will make it a foursome w/the Robert Klemmendsons & the Don Williams. Come on down & crow a little! Tkts. STILL from Win Gilmore, CL 4-3149.

Town & Country Assembly's Dance tomorrow night, too, at Diablo Country Club . . . Among those hosting parties beforehand will be the Cal Hagstroms, the Paul Mousers, Diane & Monty Haslett together w/Jackie && Bill Robinson at the former's home, & the Robert Haaf's for another gathering.

Mat Golfers Dump L.L.

Miramonte's Golfing Matadors put their record up a notch by taking the Knights of Las Lomas on the links.

Only one Matador fell by the wayside at Contra Costa Country Club and most of the nine hole tours were taken in easy stride.

Bill Houston went in over Gene DeVaveaga three and two while Jerry Overa of Miramonte dropped to Knight's John Segerdell, two and one.

Ron Minor shot a 39 to do in Don Pettijon four and three and Jud Carter picked off Tom Leonard four and three with a 41.

Dave Pail took Bob O'Donnald, four and three and picked up medalist honors with his 38.

Frank Feldman and Mike Dahlgren went in five and four over a 41 card.

Extension Transit Survey Planned

Plans were moving ahead today to complete an extensive survey of public opinion regarding the preliminary mass transit plan of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

The board of directors Tuesday night directed its committee on public information to develop a schedule of public hearings and report back with recommendations at the regular June meeting.

A SECOND committee was instructed to consider the appropriation of $2500 to conduct a scientific survey of public opinion regarding the district's preliminary transit plan, reasons for the narrow defeat of the transit bond measure last November, and the feasibility of holding a special bond election this fall.

Robert K. Barber, board president, in urging a public opinion survey, declared it is of "extreme importance to determine public sentiment regarding our program so that we can develop a transit plan most suited to the desires of East Bay residents."

As a part of the public opinion survey, the transit district already has requested more than 100 East Bay municipal and civic organizations to review the preliminary transit plan and submit suggested changes and improvements for incorporation in the revised plan.

The directors last month appropriated $20,000 to employ De Leuw, Cather & Company, engineering consultants, to revise the plan following completion of the public opinion survey.

IN OTHER BUSINESS, the board of directors instructed its attorney, Robert E. Nisbet, to return to the city of Walnut Creek a petition for exclusion from the district on grounds the petition was incorrectly prepared and did not conform with provisions of the law.

Recent amendments to the transit district law allow the cities of Walnut Creek and Concord to request total withdrawal from the transit district.

Only 43 per cent of the voters in those areas favored the recent transit bond measure as compared to nearly 62 per cent in other areas of the district.

Lt. Jacobsen Attending CHP School

Lt Arthur H. Jacobsen, 208 Glorietta Boulevard, is attending a California Highway Patrol field operations management training course in Sacramento this week.

The purpose of the patrol's in-service training program is to keep the organization's efficiency at a high level.

Lt. Jacobsen, a member of the California Highway Patrol for 18 years, is a watch commander at the Bay Bridge office.

Lester To Direct Lens Course

Dr. Robert W. Lester, clinical instructor in optometry and director of the contact lens clinic at the University of California's School of Optometry on the Berkeley campus, is one of the specialists appointed to direct a series of workshop courses on the fitting of contact lenses during a two-day program sponsored by the California Optometric Association.

Faculty members of the Los Angeles School of Optometry will also assist with the first annual state-wide contact lens workshop, which has been scheduled for Fresno, May 9 and 10.

Dr. Lester, who lives with his wife and three sons at 26 Las Palomas Drive, was recently honored as "man of the year" by the San Francisco and Marin Counties Optometric Society in tribute to his work toward the development of the contact lens as a practical and effective tool of good vision.

Christian Science

Scientific understanding of the man of God's creating brings true health and security.

This is a theme to be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man."

The Christian Science Churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Ornida; 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek; and in Concord at the corner of Grant and Park Streets.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE Society of Pleasant Hill holds its services at the Pleasant Hill Grange, 600 Gregory Lane, Pleasant Hill. The Christian Science Society of Lafayette meets at 3406 Mt. Diable Boulevard, Lafayette.

Scriptural selections will include the account in John (9:1-7) of the healing by Christ Jesus of the "man which was blind from his birth."

CORRELATIVE passages read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include (476:32-5): "Jesus beheld in Science the perfect man, who appeared to him where sinning mortal man appears to mortals.

In this perfect man the Saviour saw God's own likeness, and this correct view of man healed the sick.

Thus Jesus taught that the kingdom of God is intact, universal, and that man is pure and holy."

Methodist

The Lafayette Community Methodist Church's morning worship services are held at 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. with the Reverend Henry Page White preaching a Mother's Day sermon. Nursery service is provided for both services.

This small world gets bigger every year

The exciting world within a drop of oil keeps growing as we make discoveries that bring new and better products into your world.

Even now, these products enter every hour of your day — from automotive fuels and lubricants to synthetic fibers for blankets you sleep under at night and clothes you wear during the day.

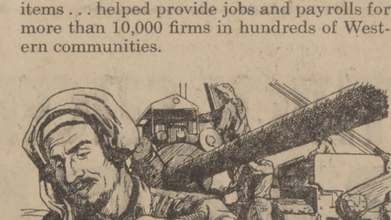
Wax containers that preserve food; plastics, paints, photographic film, detergents, medicines, synthetic rubber and thousands of other items for farms, homes, industry and the Armed Forces now are made better because of oil ingredients which Standard supplies to manufacturers.

But there's more in oil's future — much more. And so last year, as every year, one of our biggest jobs was finding ways to make oil serve you better — using research to create new and improved products, and building facilities to put these products to work.

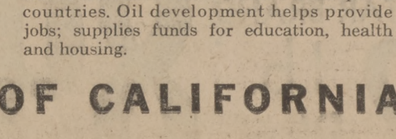
Here are some of the things we did during 1958 to expand the world within a drop of oil:

To help meet your growing demand for petroleum products, we invested $235 million for exploration and development in 21 states of the U.S. and 12 other Western Hemisphere countries.

Our research and technical service staff has grown to 1400 people. Today we make more than 1000 products not sold 15 years ago. During that time our research budget more than tripled.



Producing and distributing products takes continuing investments in new refinery equipment, pipelines, tankers, trucks and trailers. Last year, $108 million went into these new facilities.



Our 38,395 employees were paid $281 million in wages and benefits. Standard's 152,764 stockholders received nearly 4¢ for each dollar of the market value of stockholdings.

Standard was one of the largest customers in the West. Our purchases included 50,000 items . . . helped provide jobs and payrolls for more than 10,000 firms in hundreds of Western communities.

Through affiliates, we helped advance progress in more than 70 free Eastern Hemisphere countries. Oil development helps provide jobs; supplies funds for education, health and housing.

Elementary PTA Meeting May 14

The next general meeting of the Pleasant Hill Elementary PTA will be held May 14 at 8 p.m. in the school multi-purpose room, in place of the usually scheduled meeting held on the first Thursday of the month.

This meeting will "spotlight the kindergarten."

Featured on the program will be colored slides of the children at work, as photographed by the kindergarten teachers. All parents of pre-kindergarten children are invited to attend this meeting to help them better understand the present kindergarten curriculum.

The committees featured this month will be "Radio, Movies and Music", Mrs. Gordon Wise, chairman; and "Civil Defense", Mrs. Harold Tuft, chairman.

Girl Scout Brownie Troop 383 under the leadership of Mrs. John Teeling will present the evening colors. Refreshments will follow the meeting, served by the Kindergarten Room Mothers.

This year the Pleasant Hill Elementary PTA will send Mrs. James Nixon, president and Mrs. Norman Thompson, first vice president, as delegates to the state convention to be held in Los Angeles Wednesday to Saturday.

How Much Should a Pay Check Be?—Not $800!

Should your pay check be $600 a month? . . . $700 . . . $800? If you are a Contra Costa County supervisor how much should you make?

Legislation has been formulated in Sacramento which would increase our supervisors' pay to $9600 per year.

At present, three of our supervisors are making $600 per month. They could not benefit by the last pay raise granted because they have not survived an election since that time.

The two supervisors voted in the last election are making $700 per month.

If the Sacramento bill passes, all supervisors, after they are re-elected, or any new supervisors, would make $800 per month.

THIS PAY RAISE doesn't seem justified—at least at present.

How can the board justify this pay raise and still hold the line on county employee salaries?

And this line should be held. County Administrator J. P. McBrien has hinted at a "grim picture" when it comes to allocating next year's funds and establishing the tax rate.

WE THINK THAT county employees are well and fairly paid, and that generally speaking they do an excellent job. Of course, nobody ever thinks they are getting enough money for what they are doing, but that's beside the point.

It just doesn't seem right that the supervisors should be granted this pay increase when the last one hasn't become completely effective yet, and when the line must be held with county employees in most cases.

Admittedly this is a legislative matter in Sacramento and our supervisors do not have anything to do with it, but certainly a letter or word to Assemblyman Jerome Waldie or Senator George Miller Jr. would be influential.

Why not drop these legislators a line and let them know how you feel about this proposal?

It could affect your tax rate.

And Help Is Available...

Do you know any emotionally disturbed children?

Do you know any emotionally disturbed adults?

If so, there is help available for them!

More and more people are coming to realize that mental illness is not a stigma, but just what the name designates—a sickness, like measles or mumps . . . a sickness that can be cured with the proper treatment.

And this treatment is doubly important in the case of the child. A little treatment early in the game can go a long, long way. It can make a tremendous difference.

THE CHILD OR adult with a problem has an opportunity for cure today—the kind of chance that didn't exist a few years ago. And it is important to remember that these are persons with a problem, not problem persons. There is a tremendous difference.

Unfortunately, there is too great a load on the available facilities. But what help is available in our area is excellent.

People with a problem can go, first of all, to the County Hospital which has an excellent psychiatric department. This is basically a diagnotic ward, but some short term treatment is available, and the cost is commensurate with the individual's ability to pay.

FOR CHILDREN, there is help at school. Psychologists are available to work with the youngsters and suggest more thorough treatment where warranted.

And there is the Berkeley State Mental Hygiene Clinic, which is excellent. Unfortunately, again, the load on the clinic is far greater than it can handle. Many people have been accepted for treatment and are awaiting appointments.

If the problem is simply a matter of emotional or family relationships, the Family Service Bureau in Oakland is available. Under the sponsorship of the Welfare Council, a board for such a service bureau has been established in Contra Costa County, but has not yet become active because of lack of funds.

This is Mental Health Month. It is good for all of us to be aware of the problems in this field, and of some of the answers.

Awareness of the problem is half the battle.

And help is available!

And We Have to Pay for It...

Another bond issue looms as a possibility in the near future, and frankly, this one poses a dilemma.

The Contra Costa Junior College District board has noted that at present a bond issue seems like the only answer to keep up with the rising costs of greater enrollment and teacher salaries.

Now the junior college district has done a pretty fair job with the monies they have had over the years. They have operated on a pay as you go plan that has been quite effective. They have improved both campuses, the west campus in Richmond and the east campus in Pleasant Hill.

WE DOUBT, IF at the moment, a bond issue would pass. A certain amount of unfavorable publicity has eminated from the district lately, and this would not help.

Even with a thoroughly worked out program, nicely explained and presented, a bond issue would be difficult to carry.

Our first reaction was "phooey on a bond issue." But then, with consideration, we came to the conclusion that it is not only the board's problem, but our problem.

It is our problem to decide how to finance this valuable educational facility. It is "our" crop of war babies which are reaching the age where these facilities are necessary.

It is our school. More and more youngsters from this area are attending, and this number will increase each year.

THE PROBLEM is even larger, of course. Overcrowding exists on the state college level, and junior colleges are feeling the brunt little more than the other institutions of higher learning.

Obviously a solution will have to be found. It may be that a bond issue is the only practical answer. It may be that another answer can be found.

The board will have to put in a great deal of work, and present a solution, and we will have to decide if we want it.

In the meantime, we've got to pay the cost of our own higher educational facilities.

After all, we're using them. And that's why it costs us money.

Try This Yardstick . . .

By DICK OSBORN

You may not realize it, but there is an election coming up May 19.

It's pretty important to you, too, because you will be asked to consider candidates for school boards.

Now, we've been carrying yards and yards of material, both on the candidates for the various districts and on the election and/or bond issues, as the case may be.

The news sections of The Sun are the place for that, but this is the spot for a little commentary.

Was browsing through a copy of the California School Boards Association Bulletin the other day, and it included a board candidate check list.

DON'T HAVE SPACE to list them all, but here are a few you might consider.

Has the candidate arrived at a position of recognized leadership in the community?

Will the candidate accede cheerfully to the decisions of the majority?

Has the candidate a record of the kind of leadership that will represent the district as a whole rather than a record identifying him with a particular group, cause, or geographical area?

Does the candidate have the courage and ability to explain and enforce a rule which might not be popular but which is proper?

DOES THE CANDIDATE make a habit of withholding judgment on critical issues until the facts are available?

Does the candidate understand that leadership often involves the turning of public opinion from an erroneous attitude to the acceptance of a feasible rule?

Now, these are all good yardsticks by which to measure a candidate. But there are two more which are my favorites.

Is the candidate able to carry on cheerfully when public appreciation of his efforts seems to be lacking?

Frankly, that is a honey. Because if there is a more thankless task than being a school board trustee, I don't know what it is. (Unless it's editing a newspaper!)

And finally . . .

Does the candidate have a sense of humor?

That speaks for itself!

So, see you at the polls May 19, and I wish you luck in choosing the best candidate. He'll need all your help after he's elected.

Heart Patients' Eating Problem Solution Offered

Heart patients and others faced with dilemmas of diet are offered help by the Contra Costa Heart Association Special Diet Committee, Dr. Harold S. Robinson, chairman, points out.

This committee offers a variety of services to assist the meal planner faced with the task of preparing food for a low sodium diet patient.

"A LOW SODIUM diet can be flat and tasteless and monotonously repetitive," Dr. Robinson said. "Therefore, the Heart Association has prepared material to help overcome these diet dilemmas, as far as possible."

Available are sodium restricted recipes which substitute flavorful herbs, spices, and other seasonings for salt and other sources of sodium as well as menus suggesting substitutes for foods naturally high in sodium content.

To assist the cook in marketing, lists of foods are classified according to sodium content and a newly prepared list shows where commercially prepared sodium-restricted foods are available locally.

Other materials include American Heart Association diet publications, as well as a "Low Total Fat Menu Plan" and "Low Saturated Fat Menu Plan."

"BECAUSE restriction of sodium in the diet is a measure to be taken with caution, our material is given patients through a physician's referral," Dr. Robinson said.

To assist the busy doctor, the Heart Association has prepared and made available to physicians, prescription forms listing diet material. When presented to the Contra Costa County Heart Association, these materials are given free of charge to the patient.

Another referral form, recently provided for physician use, is for patients needing diet consultation services, instruction in work simplification in the home and services of the work evaluation unit.

A trained dietitian will give diet help according to the doctor's prescription on a personal visit basis.

THE WORK simplification instruction and supervision is given in the home and features time-saving and energy-conserving methods of performing household tasks.

The work evaluation unit is composed of a team of three physicians and a social worker-vocational counselor who evaluate the patient's work capacities and make recommendations regarding suitable types of employment and activities.

"The purpose of this program is to return cardiacs to productive work as far as their physical capabilities permit since these individuals in most instances can do some kind of work," said Dr. Marvin A. Epstein, medical director of the work evaluation unit and chairman of the rehabilitation committee.

Others serving on the committee include: Dr. Mary Eilert, Dr. Donald Daniels, Dr. Frederick Pellegrin, all of Walnut Creek; Dr. Peter Kunkel, Mrs. Eleanor Taylor, Pleasant Hill; Dr. Thomas Dozier, Antioch; Dr. Edwin Boysen, Pittsburg; Dr. Gilbert W. Byers, Concord; and Dr. James F. Embick, Richmond.

Major T. I. Hyde Completes Course

Maj. Thomas I. Hyde, son of Mrs. Olive Y. Hyde, 1336 Creekside Drive, completed the associate course May 1 at the army's Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

The 17-week course prepares selected army officers for duty with the general staffs of combat divisions or logistical general staff at corps, army and theater command levels.

Major Hyde is a staff officer at Ent Air Force Base, Colorado Springs, Colo. He entered the army in 1941.

The 38-year-old officer, whose wife, Shirley, lives at 833 Panorama Drive, Colorado Springs, Colo., was graduated from Albany High School in 1937 and attended Armstrong College, Berkeley.

Letters to The Editor

AVERAGE STUDENT

Dear Editor,

The following article, "C-Average Student Called Neglected," is quoted from the Christian Science Monitor, April 23rd, 1959.

"A University of Wichita educator said that not enough is being done to develop the full potential of the C-average college student.

Dean Margaret Habein told the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers that great strides have been made in working with superior students, but that C-average students have been neglected.

Dean Habeni said there will be many more voters in the C-average group than in the A-average, adding:

"C-students will be determining national and international policy, through their votes, far more than A-students. Whether we continue to be a nation suspicious of intellectuals, unwilling to support education because we do not really believe in its worth, may be the decision of our C-students. They must have our best efforts for the national . . . (and) their personal good."

In our efforts to raise the standard of education, let us not overlook the majority group (called C-average). In placing emphasis on this group, are we not raising the standard of education in the nation?

It is not surprising that this area, due to parental interest and educational background, economic factors, opportunities not offered in many parts of the nation, etc., results from standard tests show our C-average student to be well above the national C-average rating. Also, it is the policy of our high school to set their standards for grades commensurate with that of college level.

Let us give consideration to the above quotation, and remember, "C-students will be determining national and international policies, through their votes, far more than A-students."

MRS. H. M. OLSEN

Thanks to your Jack Seymour for "Marie, Dawn is Breaking" in your May 1st edition. I am sure many of Marie's readers heartily concur with his observations even if we have not taken the time to tell her and even if we might do so in a bit different manner! One thing I know — when Marie quotes you it surely sounds better than when YOU said it! May she keep that fountain of words flowing for a long time—with rhyme!

P.S. I agree that the first copy of "Suburbia Today" is most interesting. We are looking forward to future editions.

Interested in Divorce, Spanking, Taxes, Milk?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Should teachers and principals be permitted to spank your kids?

Should the California Highway patrol use radar to catch you speeding?

Should Californians, seeking a divorce, be forced to utilize a conciliation service?

Should building plans for all schools be pooled in a central office and made available to other districts?

These are just four of many, many problems that our legislators in Sacramento considered last Tuesday. Here are some more that affect you:

Should you equip your car with anti-smog device if driving in smog areas?

Should business firms (hotels, night clubs, etc.) be prohibited from charging for use of toilets?

Hazing students okay?

Should fraternities be prohibited from hazing new student members?

Should Sunday sale of cars be prohibited?

Should the state continue to establish minimum prices for milk and cream?

Should the state be permitted to tax your property up to 35 cents per $100 valuation through 1980 for water development?

Yes, these issues do affect us, don't they?

And yet most of us think of the State Legislature and government as something remote from our personal lives. I was intrigued by the long list of bills, acts and constitutional amendments that whirled around the California capital in just one day this week, Tuesday.

And here are more:

Printed below are just a few of the problems, some of which are referred to above:

Elections: Repeals crossfiling.

Driving: Authorizes school districts to teach driving during Easter and Christmas.

Bonds: Requires ballot to show county counsel's impartial analysis of all county bond proposals.

Hazing: Bans hazing at all educational institutions, withdraws public support from institutions allowing hazing and fines guilty individuals.

Punishment: Permits reasonable corporal or other punishment to pupils by teachers, principals.

Speeding caught by radar?

Radar: Allows California Highway Patrol to use radar to catch speeders.

Secrecy: Extends laws requiring state agencies to hold open meetings, permit inspection of records to 19 more boards and commissions.

Water: Gives Southern California equal rights to state water, provides bond issue for water development, prevents legislature from nullifying water contracts.

Housing: Authorizes Legislature to establish farm and home authority to set standards for home construction and guarantee loans.

Penalty: Provides for death penalty only in cases where jury finds no hope for rehabilitation of defendant, bans execution for person not previously convicted of felony except where law required death.

Smog: Requires state to determine hazardous areas, provide for approved anti-smog device on auto exhausts in such areas, forbids vehicles not equipped with certified device after Jan. 1, 1962. Prohibits use of vehicle after Jan. 1, 1965, without approved anti-smog device.

No more collection agencies?

Collections: Outlaws bill collection agencies.

Campaign: Limits campaign expenditures by candidates for state office.

Sunday: Prohibits sale of motor vehicles on Sunday.

Strips: Authorizes state to build and operate four off-street auto drag strips.

Discrimination: Outlaws discrimination in housing.

Advertising: Prohibits county contracts with private organization such as chambers of commerce to advertise county.

Toilets: Prohibits business serving public from charging for use of toilets.

Eliminate 3 school holidays?

Holidays: Eliminates Washington's Birthday, Lincoln's Birthday and Admission Days from list of public school holidays.

Elections: Permits political parties to nominate candidates for primary elections at district, state conventions.

Marriage: Requires person seeking divorce to use conciliation clinics, establishes clinics.

Milk: Repeals provisions for establishing minimum wholesale and retail price for fluid milk and cream.

Schools: Requires Department of Education to establish pool of school building plans, make plans available to school districts.

Ambulances: Provides that ambulances shall not be used on emergency calls unless driver or attendant has valid first aid certificate.

Tax: Authorizes state real property tax of up to 35 cents for each $100 assessed value through 1980 to finance water development.

On The Lighter Side

By DORRIS DALY

First to slip their reins over the hitching post by the Del Rey School last Saturday, were members of the parents club who were successful in creating an atmosphere of the 'Old West' on grounds of the Orinda school by staging a "Country Fair."

Straw hats and calicoes visited the "Pantry" where home-made jams and jellies shown through polished glass, cakes floated on the counter and pies drew shekels from the jeans as the neighing of horses and the stamping of hoofs filled the air with sounds resounding from a century ago.

A four horse hookup led a bulging stage coach around the "Fair" as another hauled hay and as many as forty riders per load. Pony rides were available for the younger set as well as makeup booths where the wee-ones were transformed into young braves or whatever!

A variety of booths were manned by the parents, but the most popular one proved to be the "Dough Boy Pool" where the principal, H. Z. Nyln, egged his assailiants on as a well aimed toss would send him plunging into four feet of refreshing but cold water . . . truly great sport!

Among the many energetic parents who planned and worked the "Fair," were the Ivan L. MacDonald (over all chairmen), Robert Patmonts, Ned De Laveagas; James Dennings, F. P. Fullers, William Cooks, and the R. A. Sodestrons.

A switch on the horsey set . . .

Hayrides are becoming quite the thing . . . May 16 will find the Lafayette Grammar School pupils engaging in this new found recess and the Burton Elementary School is scheduled for its stretch in the straw on the 23rd. A fabulous team of two Percherons and two Clydesdales—a combined weight of eight thousand pounds—hauls the delighted kiddies in strutting style. Bob Keeney of Buckeye Ranch in Lafayette is owner and driver of the team, and frequently holds hayrides on his ranch which covers rolling untouched acres of wooded hills.

Dora Cochran and Walt Grens, who will be married May 9, were honored by the staff members of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center when a party was given at Dick and Ina Bliesner's home on Lakewood Road. Wives and Husbands of the staff were on hand as well as some former members . . . such as Connie Kieny and her Leo.

A pot-luck buffet supper was served from a lengthy table covered with a black linen cloth. A high white pitcher overflowed with many-shaped pink roses and soft light glowed from two antique kerosene lamps. Dora and Walt received a lovely gift from all, as did a MOST surprised and grateful Ina.

Guests were the Messrs. and Mmes. Charles Benoy, Simeon Jeffries, Bill Coffey, Bob Rich, Earl Miller, Walt Kirk, Gerald Smale, Hank Bolger, Clyde MacDonald, Don Hanley, Will Mackewicz, and Misses Nada Miller, Bette Caldecott and Eda Coburn. Mrs. Kathleen Cochran, the bride-to-be's mother from Berkeley and Mrs. Dorothy Biggins graced the occasion by their presence.

Some hot fishing going on . . .

Trout season opened for the Joseph Van der Haeghens with a hasty retreat from their Alamo home to the higher climes of HOT Creek . . . (warm blooded trout yet?) . . . Wife Maxine kept a wary eye on their three tremendous German short haired pointers while son Mark learned how to thread those long wiggly things over the sharp end of Dad's line. Joe and Maxine have just signed the papers on a summer home at Pine Crest and to celebrate the event, had Barbara and Frank Fuller and son Stephen from Orinda as overnight guests.

Barbara enjoyed her hike in the Sierras, but admittedly, was no competition to the three hounds when it came to scaling boulders.

Alma Blakesley, president of the Lafayette-Orinda Soroptimist club has recently returned from the Regional Conference in Sacramento. Delegates from this group who also attended were Eda Lippi and Leah Belle Blodgett; visitors included Lavina Irwin, Grayless Vossler, Jane Patorio and Esther Marchant.

Following the conference, was a lovely banquet, held at the El Dorado Motel with seven hundred and fifty present. Many dignitaries presided, with the Mayor of Sacramento issuing the key to the city. Mrs Jennie Fink, the charming Soroptimist delegate from Honolulu presented the honored guests at the banquet with the Island's traditional leis. The trip, from all reports, was inspirational, educational, and thoroughly enjoyed.

And some lovely young ladies . . .

Enchanting youth in varied colored full length formals lent a fairy-land atmosphere to the intiation ceremony as eight new members were ushered into the Walnut Creek Assembly No. 84, Order of the Rainbow Girls. Aunt "Anna" has been Mother Advisor for several years now and her popularity is certainly deserved.

Joy Ann Croskey, of Walnut Creek, is the current Worthy Advisor and her project has been to sell Stanley Products. The girls are helping with supplies for the Cancer Dressing Station.

Valleymont Auxiliary to the Booth Memorial Hospital held its April meeting at the Dean P. La Field's home in Lafayette. Elections were held for 1959-1960 offices with the following results: Incoming president, Mrs. Edward Bellegarde, vice president, Mrs. Paul Holmes, secretary, Mrs. Dean La Field and treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Villa.

These diligent young matrons will assume their new positions as of May to plan a year's calendar of projects, with the proceeds of the benefits to go toward this worthy charity.

Here's a busy weekend schedule . . .

A full weekend was had by Ruth (Mrs. Kelton) Cummings as she not only entertained out-of-towners Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jackson, but cared for Sandy and Mike Brown, offspring of the Cecil Browns of Concord, who spent the weekend (and probably more) in Reno. While her guests lounged about her circular pool, Ruth competently whipped up a hot dish for her older son's Sunday pot-luck dinner meeting at the Orinda Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jacobsen Jr. gave a send-off dinner for their ex-business partner Joe Adams and wife Cissy . . . Joe, who went from lumber into ranching in Modesto, left on the first of May to take over his new avocation. Cissy and their five children will follow when school lets out.

An admirable project is under way as a weekly putting tournament is being held by the Women's golf group and the "Divoteers" of the Contra Costa Country Club in Concord. This is held at the Livermore Veterans Hospital in cooperation with the United Volunteer Service. They conduct the tournament for the ambulatory patients in the T.B. ward who are able to participate in minor activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Deming of Alamo took off with their two sons for a weekend by the Pacific at Aptos. Carolyn (Mrs.) Deming, is an avid collector of shells, rocks, and driftwood. Needless to say, the station wagon was carrying a heavier load on the return trip. Her gardens are well worth viewing: Rock arrangements, bird baths and a grotto, all studded with ferns and shade-loving plants, are a compliment to her artistry with stone and soil.

And it's fashion show time . . .

The Starling Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center is presenting their annual fashion show May 28 at the Concord Inn. Cocktails will be served at 12:30 luncheon at 1:30. Chairman is Mrs. Walden Lapham and the model chairman is Mrs. Al Cortese, both of Martinez. Mrs. Allen De Soto is in charge of decorations and Mrs. Anna Gold of Pleasant Hill is responsible for tickets.

BON VOYAGE! . . . To Candy and Jack Irvine . . . they sailed on the Lurline with their son Kip, as she pulled anchor for her May 4 voyage to Honolulu. Candy's gay smile and pleasant countenance, seen so often in contrast with that of "Stoneface" (her pet names for their German shepherd, who was better known as "Smokey") will surely be missed by their many friends and neighbors in Lafayette . . .

The Irvines will be establishing residence on familiar ground when they settle for the second time in the islands . . . We wish them good luck, and all the favors Dame Fortune can bestow in their new venture.

YOUNG DRIVERS

Drivers under 25 years of age were involved in 27 per cent of the fatal accidents in 1958.

Presbyterian Women's Group Will Hold Meet

Helen MacGregor, attorney and fromer secretary to Earl Warren for 20 years, will be the guest speaker at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church, 49 Crest Road, Lafayette, on Tuesday.

Sponsored by Sections 1 and 2 of the Women's Association, the meeting will begin at 7 p.m. with a family potluck dinner in the church Fellowship Hall, with Miss MacGregor's talk to begin at 8:15 p.m. Her topic will be "The organization of a Political Party." Those unable to attend the supper are welcome to come at 8:15. Her talks is open to the public.

Food assignments may be made with Lois Holcomb, CLifford 4-2504, and everyone is to bring his own dishes and silver. Movies will be provided for older children, but there will be no nursery.

Rebekahs Get Official Visit

Mrs. Lottie Gibbs, district deputy president, and her marshal paid an official visit to Walnut Rebekah Lodge 320 at the group's last meeting. Other lodges represented were: Danville, Berkeley, Bryan, Pittsburg, Concord.

Walterine Christensen, noble grand, presided. Junior past noble grand, Marie Graham, reported on the card party held at her home recently. It was well attended and a good profit was made and everyone had a good time.

Margaret Wayne reported that the Walnut Lodge was well represented at Gilroy on April 12 at the Children's Home. Those going to the Children's Home and taking a picnic lunch to share with the children were: Faye Gibson and husband, Faye McElroy, Minnie Mannie, Walterine Christensen, Jeanette Poage, Sue Rhoads, Edna Kokx and husband, and Margarite Wayne and husband. Minnie Mannie lived at the home when she was a child, so the trip was very enjoyable and one of good memories.

Two delegates to the assembly at Long Beach in May will be Thelma Wellman, past noble grand, and Marie Graham, junior past noble grand, Marie Graham receiving the mileage. Marie Graham was chosen queen from the Walnut Rebekah Lodge for the Mardi Gras at the assembly good fellowship night in Long Beach, May 18.

After the meeting a surprise handkerchief shower was given to Walterine Christensen, noble grand, for her recent birthday. Thelma Wellman made and decorated the cake.

Refreshments were served to a large crowd by Thelma Wellman, chairman, and assistants Grace Kizer, Shirley Haberland, Pearl White, and Bernadene Zimmerman.

JESSIE DANIELS HAD A FIGURE PROBLEM!
One day, looking at myself in the mirror, I realized I was being unfair to both myself and my husband by being so overweight. Every husband likes to take pride in his wife's appearance. I decided right then to do something about it. So I called Eileen Feather for an appointment.

EILEEN FEATHER HAD THE ANSWER!
When I had my figure analysis I was impressed by the warm and friendly atmosphere of the salon. The manager put me completely at ease as she explained what my perfect measurements would be. She warned me not to buy any new clothes until I finished my program . . . and no wonder! In 2½ months my dress size came down from 22 to 13.

JESSIE DANIELS HAD A FIGURE PROBLEM!
I followed Eileen Feather's instructions to the letter. I lost 6 lbs. after the first treatment. In the 2½ months I lost a total of 42 lbs. and more than 49 inches in measurements. Now I not only have a lovely new figure but a wonderful new confidence in myself. My husband and I have never been happier.

Pageant Has Rare Pages, Says Library Supervisor

Mrs. Mildred Carlock, Walnut Creek librarian, has obtained a priceless collection of Medieval illuminated manuscripts for display at the Pageant of Arts. Currently they are being stored in the vault of the American Trust Bank.

Copied in monastaries and cathedral schools on lambskin or kidskin. Medieval illumination generally pre-dated the era of Gutenberg printing. The manuscripts are handlettered, with borders decorated in colored inks with decorative scrollwork and fanciful plants and flowers.

Many initial-letters and marginal decorations are highlighted with gold leaf.

Included in the collection are pages from two French books of hours, a page of Gregorian music with hobnail notations, one page of the writings of Saint Jerome, and a page of a Vulgate Bible.

The oldest manuscript in the collection is a leaf of a Swiss missal of 1370.

Exhibits featuring fine printing and rare and unusual books will be on display after May 15 in the Orinda and Pleasant Hill branches of the Contra Costa County Library.

Also contributing to the literary phase of the pageant are many well-known area authors who will be presented at the Meet the Author corner in connection with the literary display.

Among those to be introduced are Lloyd Eric Reeve whose new book on wine, two years in the writing, is titled Gift of the Grape, Mrs. Patsy Gray of Walnut Creek, well-known writer of children's books, whose latest is Galloping Gold; and Betty Morrow Bacon, a Contra Costa librarian, also well-known for her books for children.

Another highlight will be the poetry contest sponsored by Ben's Seven Arts Book Shop in Walnut Creek. Eight area high schools have announced the contest to their students.

Entries must be in the bookshop no later than Sunday, May 24, and prizes will be awarded Sunday, May 31 at 3 p.m.

The award winner's poems will be read, also those receiving honorable mention.

Civil Defense 'Paper Test' Set for Today

A nationwide civil defense test exercise called Operation Alert 1959 is to take place today announced Will H. Perry Jr., director of the Contra Costa County Office of Civil Defense and Disaster.

Contra Costa County will participate in this paper exercise frmo 1 to 5 p.m. in the board room of the Hall of Records, Martinez.

The board of supervisors and the county administrator's office will be represented, as well as all county CD chiefs and alternates, city CD directors and alternates, and the county CD staff.

Turn Signals Make Difference--CHP

Signal your intention before making a lane change or a turn when other vehicles may be affected and cut down your chances of getting into an intersection or side-swipe collision.

This is the advice issued by the California Highway Patrol, which adds that signals must be given continuously during the last 100 feet before changing the course of travel.

"One of the basic reasons for signals is to let the other driver know in advance what you plan to do, thus enabling him to adjust his driving accordingly," commented Bradford M. Crittenden, commissioner of the Highway Patrol.

"Although approved signal devices may legally be used at any time, generally speaking it is safer to use both hand and arm signals and electrical signal devices during daylight hours and electrical signal devices at night.

"Positive signals properly given will aid the smooth flow of traffic and help prevent collisions involving turning movements."

St. Nick Wins Diablo Dog Show

Little "Nikki" St. Nicholas recently won top honors as the highest scoring dog shown by a member of the Mt. Diablo Dog Training Club at the 12th annual Obedience Trials in Walnut Creek with a score of 194½ in the open B ring.

Nikki, a toy poodle trained by Mrs. Henry Cabral, competed in a run-off with "Jet" and his owner, Dr. Carl F. Mills, to win the club trophy. Jet, as his name indicates, is a black miniature poodle, and he scored 194½ points, earnnig his first leg towards a companion dog degree and the trophy for the second highest scoring dog in novice A.

Both Mrs. Cabral, who was in charge of special Hawaiian entertainment, and Dr. Mills, who was host to the trial committee in his Ygnacio Valley home, received well-deserved praise amid the gaiety of the judges dinner.

Surprise features on the program were performances by Howard Hooper, club training director and Louise Cabral portraying an amateur hula, and Janice Ronneberg, club publicity chairman, dancing Keep Your Eyes on the Hands

Other club members and their dogs winning recognition for qualifying scores were Pamela Russell and Eric, a German shepherd, Novice—186½; Anita Bartz-Johannessen and Knute, a standard poodle, Novice A—193½; Paul Hampson and Amber, a red setter, Novice A—193½; Mrs. B. E. Gavin and Boy, a Weimaraner, Open B—192 and Ruth Cale and Abricot, a poodle, 185 points.

Miss Joan Mollino and her black poodle, Gee Gee, won the trophy for the highest scoring dog shown by a member of the Mt. Diablo Dog Training classes with a score of 195.

County Oldsters Have Luncheon

Twenty-seven Contra Costa oldtimers recently gathered for luncheon at the Kiwanis Youth Center in Martinez.

It was a tenth annual affair, sponsored by the Las Juntas Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, and it brought pioneers from all parts of the county.

Attending from local areas were Miss Rose and Fred Wiedeman of San Ramon, Esther Symmons of Walnut Creek, and Addie Allen of Lafayette.

Get the Flies at Home, Says Abatement District

Central Contra Costa County has a continuing problem—flies, according to Ernest Campbell, manager of the County Mosquito Abatement District.

The district, which long ago won its battle against the mosquito, now is seeking assistance of the homeowner in its war on flies, which have one of their main breeding places around the home.

The district is marking its fourth anniversary in fly control activity with distribution of a leaflet to homeowners describing the common sources of flies and what the homeowner can do about them.

PARTIAL ELIMINATION of the fly problem is being achieved by control of breeding sources on the ranch and in waste from commercial establishments. However the District, which comprises the central county area, never will be free of flies until home breeding sources are controlled, say district officials.

The most common source around the home is the garbage can. A study has shown there is a sustained average fly population of 2,092 flies for every house hold garbage can.

Fly maggots thrive in moist organic material. Garbage should be drained of liquids and securely wrapped in newspaper before being placed in the outside can.

PILES OF LAWN clippings, animal waste, walnut hulls and other vegetable matter are also common sources of flies around the household.

In contrast to mosquitoes, which begin life as "wigglers" in water, the fly begins life as a "maggot" in moist, organic material, such as poultry or animal manure, or decomposing vegetable matter.

The fly which is a curse to mankind has been a continuing problem to control because it breeds in man's own waste products.

The Mosquito Abatement District started work in April 1927 to exterminate the hoards of daytime-biting and far traveling salt marsh mosquitoes infesting the central county.

The district has long since had these insects under control.

Your Garden —

Plant Annuals for Color; They Brighten the Garden

Like the trimming on a cake, an edging in the garden adds a sense of completeness. But there's more to it than that. Cake is good to eat without the trimming, while a garden without its share of edging material lacks appeal.

THE TERM EDGING, however, is not to be mistaken for formality. Nor even for plant material, in all cases. Concrete, wood and rock are also used for edging in the landscape. And of the many plants used, only a finely clipped boxwood is completely formal in appearance.

The most widely used of all edging material are annual flowers. For color, they are unsurpassed. And the variety they offer through different seasons heightens their appeal. Consider then this list of annuals for edging which the California Association of Nurserymen considers tops in summer gardens.

The fluffy, light-blue puffs of Ageratum are favorites with all gardeners who have met them. C.A.N. members rate Ageratum high and consider it an "undiscovered" gem for gardeners who want a lot of color for very little work.

ALSO IN SHADES of light blue, but in deep blue-purple too, are the compact forms of lobelia, with their masses of tiny blooms.

Thees are sure-fire for summer long color in a part-sun situation.

Shearing back when blooms start to dwindle in late summer will bring another growth-bloom cycle.

The defending champion of edging annuals is probably the dwarf marigold. Its brightness is a summer-long phenomenon, to be used along a sunny path or around a border planting of shrubs.

AND FINALLY we come to alyssum, the modern descendants of those weedy annuals that used to come up wherever we didn't want it in California gardens.

New varieties such as carpet of snow, little gem (both white) and royal carpet (a rich purple) make alyssum a valuable addition to the list. Try it to define a border or a walk in your own garden and you'll see what we mean.

Here Are Things To Do in Your Garden This Week

Here is your gardener's check list for this week:

1. Keep fuchsias growing fast with regular watering and feeding. Pinch out some new growth to guide the rest in whatever directions you choose.

2. Tag bearded iris when in bloom so you'll know what colors you are dividing and replanting after bloom is gone.

3. Tomatoes are often fussy about their climate requirements. The plants your nurseryman offers are adapted to your own area.

4. Feed camellias, azaleas and rhododendrons with acid-type fertilizer after bloom. Keep them moist at all times.

5. Shop nurseries for a vine to provide overhead shade in patios or terraces.

Realtors Have Dinner Date

Carl Bryant of Walnut Creek and Allan Ingalls of Lafayette are among those who will attend the charter membership dinner of the Northern California Real Estate Certificate Institute tonight at the Claremont Hotel.

More than 200 real estate men and women as well as instructors will attend. The certificate program is conducted under the University of California Extension Division with an aim of eventual professional status for real estate personnel.

Chief speaker will be former State Senator Arthur H. Breed of Oakland, who was chiefly responsible for initiating the State Educational Fund which made the program possible.

Also scheduled to attend the banquest are area institute members Theodore Barcelon, William Glogovac, Allison Hartman and S. A. Jonker.

D.V.A.L. Track Meet Today

Varsity Division Wide Open; Don Babes Favored

This afternoon at Concord, the Diablo Valley track meet takes place at Diablo High and on the basis of Division meets, it looks to be a race between Pittsburg and Acalanes for the top Bee honors while the varsity meet looks to be a wide open race with many possibilities.

Pittsburg, winner of the Contra Costa Division and Piedmont, winner in the Foothill Division look to be stronger than Alhambra High, tops in the East Bay section.

Practically every team in the meet has top performers in one or more events and points could be split up in a hundred and one different ways.

A dark horse could be Miramonte as Dixon Farmer could well cop three firsts and keep his team in the point columns in the relay and add a few points by teammates.

It's a good long shot at any rate.

THE FOOTHILL division of the Diablo Valley Athletic got a workout Friday at San Ramon. Crack runners Bruce Dodge, and Fred Lecari of Acalanes placed and showed after Dixon Farmer of Miramonte took the race. —Sun photo by Mattson

Rams Chalk Up Close Win Over Clayton Valley Nine

The Pleasant Hill Rams chalked up a close 5-4 win over the Clayton Valley Eagles last Tuesday afternoon in a league game played at Concord.

The Rams appeared to be in trouble in the early stages of the game when the Eagles converted two hits and two errors into a pair of runs in the bottom of the second.

THE RAMS POSTED a run of their own in the top of the third when first baseman Jim Spiher walked and Ron Beardsley followed with a single.

Spiher was out in trying to go to third while Beardsley wound up on second and legged it to third on a passed ball.

Jim Maples made it two down as he grounded out with Beardsley holding up on the play and then scoring when the third baseman booted Mark Bowers grounder.

That tied the ball game up at 2-2 but it didn't stay that way long as Clayton Valley scored twice again in the bottom of the fifth.

THEIR LEAD this time was short-lived as the visiting Rams iced the contest in the top half of the sixth, scoring three runs without getting a hit.

Bowen was on as leadoff hitter when belted by a pitched ball.

Bill Chappell followed with a ground ball to the third baseman who threw to second only to have the ball dropped.

George Adams grounded to third and Bowen was out on the forced play.

Don Dameral set the stage when he walked to load the bags.

ROGER LEONARD got things going when he hit to third and the ball was thrown into right field on an overthrow in an attempted play at second with Chappell and Adams scoring and Dameral winding up on third.

Don Lindeman grounded out third to first and Spiher walked to load the bases again.

Beardsley then walked to force in Dameral with what turned out to be the winning run and the games' only run batted in.

Each club wound up with three errors and Clayton Valley had a 6-4 edge in the hitting department.

Batteries: Pleasant Hill — Beardsley, Carey (6) and Adams; Clayton Valley — Neufeld, Snyder (6) and Bankhead.

Free Movies! Available To Clubs, Schools, Too!

Free movies! That's a youngster's dream, but for Walnut Creek school children it was a reality last year.

The pictures they say were short, informative—and usually entertaining—films made by various industrial firms. Most of the films are expertly made, and the commercial content is all but zero—limited to titles in most cases. They have become widely used aids in modern education.

Among industry-sponsored films made available to Walnut Creek schools are those from Shell Oil Company's million-dollar library. A collection of professionally produced motion pictures on the oil industry, science, and aviation, they are loaned free to schools and other interested groups.

The diversity of the collection is indicated by the two most recent additions: "The Rival World" and "Song of the Clouds." "The Rival World" tells of man's endless war against destructive insects, while "Song of the Clouds" deals with the international cooperation needed to maintain air travel in the service of mankind.

Both films are in color, and both include sequences from other countries. The crews that photographed "Song of the Clouds" traveled 75,000 miles to show aviation activities throughout the free world.

There are 26 titles in the motion picture library. They are all in sound, and many are in color. Some employ a three dimensional animation technique to make complex subjects more understandable. Several of the films have won awards in national and international competitions for excellence in the field of audio-visual education.

Last year, Shell films were seen by more than 17 million persons —members of service, fraternal and museum-study organizations as well as students. Another 18 million people saw the motion pictures on television.

Dons Paste Miramonte 9 After First Inning Scare

The Miramonte Matadors threw a scare into the Acalanes Dons last Tuesday afternoon when they took a 1-0 first inning lead only to have the Lafayette Nine explode with a vengeance as they put eight runs on the board in the second frame.

They were never in trouble as southpaw Mike Kritscher set the Mats down the rest of the way. He gave up two hits in the first frame but that was it as he set 15 down on strikeouts. He gave up no hits the rest of the way.

THE MIRAMONTE team got their opening inning run when Rob Anthonisen walked after two were out and he went to second on Bruce Hancock's single from where he scored on Brad Peter's single.

Two were down at the time and Kritscher struck out Bob Connolly to end the short-lived rally.

The Dons batted around in the second inning when 12 batters came to the plate before the side was retired after eight runs had scored on three singles, a pair of doubles, three walks, an error and a sacrifice fly.

THE DONS collected four more runs in the fourth with four hits and a pair of walks. A double by Lou Cosso was the frame's big blow.

Mike Kritscher with two for four and George McMeans with two for three were the Don's top men in an 11-hit attack.

Dons had one error, Mats two.

Batteries: Miramonte — Anthonisen, Hilger (4) and Welch. Acalanes—Kritscher and Cosso.

Pirates Edge Pleasant Hill In Steel City Action 5-4

The Pleasant Hill Rams lost another close one last Tuesday afternoon when the Pittsburg Pirates edged them 5-4 in a game played at the Steel City.

The Rams and Pirates were nip and tuck all the way with the issue decided in the fatal sixth when Pitt scored what proved to be two big runs.

RAMS STARTED well enough, getting two runs in their first time at bat.

In the first inning, Jim Maple got life on an error by the first baseman.

Mark Bowers followed with an out as he flew out to right field and then Bill Chappel reached first on the pitcher's error with Maples going to third on the play.

Chappel stole second and George Adams next at bat struck out on a swing at a third strike. But the ball went through the catcher as Maples scored and Adams sprinted safely to first.

BILL LOCATELLI hit a single to score Chappel.

The rally ended when Dave Sheperd forced Locatelli at second and Roger Leonard flew out to center.

Pitt came back with single runs in the first and third innings to tie the ball game at 2-2.

In the fifth both clubs scored single runs.

Pitt took a 5-3 lead in the bottom half of the sixth with a two run outburst and that proved to be the ball game as the Rams managed to hit a single run in the seventh.

THE RUN CAME when Bower walked and reached third on Chappel's double to right center.

Adams lined out to second and Locatelli grounded out short to first with Bower scoring.

The game ended when the next batter struck out. The Pirates outhit the Rams 10-8 and each club had three errors.

Batteries: Pleasant Hill—Locatelli and Adams.

Pittsburg—Pardi, Lea (7) and Lewis.

Wolves Nail Mats In Horsehider

Timely hitting and taking advantage of every move resulted in a San Ramon High 7-1 win over the Miramonte baseball team in a game played at Danville Tuesday.

The Wolves were off to a fast start scoring three runs in the first inning when they made the most of a bunt by Bob Lang, Dennis Prouty's sacrifice, Ken Miller's single and a triple by Wayne Gilbert.

San Ramon scored four more runs in the sixth when walks, an error and a hit batter along with a bunt produced scores without benefit of a hit.

Miramonte's lone run came in the final seventh when—with two away—John Walker singled and went to second when the next batter walked, then came on in on an error on a ground ball.

Danville Coach Mike O'Gorman came up with a surprise starter in Bob Lang who had been a first baseman all season long.

Lang went the distance, struck out seven and gave up but three hits.

San Ramon had six hits while each club had an error.

Batteries: San Ramon — Lang and K. Miller; Miramonte—Hancock, Hilger (6) and Welch.

Acalanes Track Team Wins in First Meet

The Piedmont Highlanders and the Acalanes Bee track team came through with wins in the first Foothill Division track meet held at Danville last Friday.

The Piedmont team got 76 points for the win with Acalanes the runner up with 58, Miramonte third with 47, San Ramon fourth with 43 and Las Lomas last with 23.

MIRAMONTE'S Dixon Farmer was the individual top point-getter, taking three firsts as he won the 440 in 50.8, the 180 low hurdles in 19.4 and the broad jump at 20 - 10½.

Kevin Hogan was a two-time winner for Piedmont, winning the 880 at 1:58.4 and copping the 220 at 22.0.

Other first place winners were as follows:

100—Bob Rime (A) 10.3.

Mile—Leo Macfarlane (A) 4:-40.6.

120 high hurdles—Reiner Lenglis 15.6.

High jump—Steve Lientz (A) 6-1¾.

Pole vault—Kent Brewer (SR) 11-6.

Shot put—George Koolery (SR) 50-11.

Discus—Ken Ambrose (P) 154-7½.

Relay — Piedmont, Miramonte, Acalanes, Las Lomas and San Ramon.

In the class Bee meet coach Jack Carhart's thinclads came through with a sparkling win as they topped the field with 109-5/6 points.

PIEDMONT WAS next with 92-1/6; San Ramon had 30 points, Miramonte 11 and Las Lomas 3.

DONS WIN BOTH

The Acalanes track team played host to the El Cerrito thinclads Wednesday and won both varsity and Bee meets.

The varsity squeaked by 57½-55½ while the Bee won going away, 80-2/3 - 32-1/3.

In the varsity meet the Dons' Steve Lientz won the final event —the high jump when he cleared 6-8 to decide the meet.

Bob Rinne was a two-time winner for the Dons, winning the 100-yard dash (10.4) and the 220 (23.2).

BILL JENCKS, running his first low hurdle race, got what proved to be very important points when he placed second.

Other first place winners were Fred Lercari in the 440 (52.6), Jim Walker in the broad jump (20-5), Leo Macfarlane in the mile (4:38.8), and Dewaine Stutts in the discus (15-7).

The Dons won the relay in 1:34.3 (Tony LaRosa, Bob Rinne, Chris Rinne and Fred Lercari).

In the Bee meet the Dons Bill Pinkus got off a record heave of 55-5½.

ORINDA RESULTS

In a track meet held at Orinda Wednesday, Miramonte's Dixon Farmer—as per schedule—copped three firsts but it wasn't quite enough as the Las Lomas Knights won the meet 57-56.

FARMER POSTED a fine 49.2 in the 440 yard run, a 22.4 in the 220 and won the broad jump at 20-8½ in addition to running a lap on the winning relay team.

Knight Dave Weill tossed the shot 42-4 and the discus 138 feet for a pair of wins while teammate Dave Tweed won the high jump at 6-10½.

JEFF NEIGHBOR set a good pace to win the 880 for the Mats with a 1:58.8 timing.

Miramonte won the Bee meet as they scored 27 points to the visitors 46.

Pleasant Hill's Swimmers Sink Red Devils for Title

Four Pleasant Hill varsity records and one Mt. Diablo standard fell as the Rams defeated the Red Devils, 53-42, for the Diablo Valley Athletic League and Contra Costa Division swimming championship.

Two Mt. Diablo records went by the boards as the Devils easily captured the Class B championship, 62-14.

Pete Wolfe led Coach Art Poulin's splashers to victory by lowering two of his own school marks, winning the 100-yard backstroke in 1:05.7 and the 150-yard individual medley meet's only double winner.

Rich Wisshack was timed in 1:12.5 to establish a new mark in the 100-yard breaststroke. He later joined three teammates in setting a new medley relay record of 1:59.6.

Ralph Mohr, Mt. Diablo's ace distance swimmer, lowered his own school record of 4:59-flat when he won the 440-yard freestyle event in 4:58.5.

The Diablo B team splashed to victory in every event, except the 50-yard freestyle, in taking its surprising easy victory. Bill Marsh set a new MD record in winning the 100-yard backstroke in 1:15.5, while the other record came in the freestyle relay with a time of 1:50.6.

In preparing for the North Coast qualifying meet next month, Mt. Diablo will be host to Acalanes and Pleasant Hill will meet Las Lomas next Wednesday afternoon.

The varsity summary:

400-free: Mohr, MD; Murphy, PH; Bradley, MD, 4:58.5.

Ram Spikers Pacifica, 81-31 Win Meet Over

The Pleasant Hill Rams wound up their dual league meet season in impressive fashion Wednesday when they defeated the visiting Spartans of Pacifica 81-31. They also won the Bee meet 61-52.

The Rams varsity won nine events and swept both hurdle races. Pacifica set three records in winning four events.

Pacifica's Glen Hill tossed the discus 147-10 for a new mark and Stephen LaPointe set a new time of 2:03.8 in the half-mile event.

BILL MATTSON set another new record with an 11-5 in the pole vault.

Pleasant Hill's Harry Drake was the meets only winner as he copped the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.6 and the 180 in 21.3.

In the Bee meeting, Jim Hinds was the big point-getter with a first in the 75 (8.2), a first in the 150 (16.2) and a third in the shot as well as running a leg on the winning relay team.

ANOTHER TOP performance was a record-breaking 660 (1:31) by the Rams' Bill Rigley.

Player, Umpire, Spectator Heaved In Shut Out Tilt

The Las Lomas Knights wrapped up league win number seven Tuesday afternoon when they shut out the San Ramon Wolves and sent them home howling with a 5-0 loss.

The game was wild with an umpire, player and spectator getting the old heave ho before the game ended.

ONLY ONE UMP showed for the game and when another unscheduled one arrived he was pressed into service.

Poor calls and indecision on plays led to his removal by the coaches mutual consent.

Mike Kyle, a San Ramon player, was sent to the bathhouse by the ump when he protested too loudly and too long on a decision.

The spectator was tossed out when he perched on the San Ramon bench to heckle the ump to the point where he got the word—leave via the nearest exit.

THE BALL GAME itself found the Knight's Clark Ransome going the route as he scattered six hits to throw shut out ball while his teammates made the most of six blows to chalk up five runs.

The Knights posted two runs in the first inning with Don Hopkins starting it with a double on one away.

Ransome made it two on when he walked and Larry Drummond followed with a single to score Hopkins and advancing Ransome to third from where he pilfered home when the San Ramon club tossed the horsehide around the infield following a play.

Hopkins got in on the scoring act again in the third stanza when he drove one over the left field fence.

THE FINAL SCORING came in the fifth when Bob Samuels doubled to drive in Bob Govez who had walked to the first sack.

Terry Sieberlich put on the finishing touch when he cracked out a one bagger to score Samuels.

Each club committed three errors.

We're Rabid Now, Reminds County

The California Department of Public Health recently declared Contra Costa County a rabies area, reminds Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer.

The declaration, as defined in section 1901.2 of the California Health and Safety Code, will be for a 12 month period which began April 9, 1959.

It will be county wide, including incorporated cities.

The code requires that in rabies areas all dogs over four months of age must be properly vaccinated against rabies, and licensed. Dogs under four months of age must be confined on premises or kept under physical restraint.

Responsibility for abiding by these requirements is placed upon the dog owner.

In county unincorporated areas the Agricultural Commissioner has been given authority to enforce the regulations through a newly created office of Animal Control Director. Within the unincorporated areas all inquiries concerning animal control should be directed to the Animal Control Center at 2777 Arnold Industrial Highway.

In the incorporated cities of Contra Costa County local governing bodies are responsible for the enforcement of these regulations. Inquiries here should be directed to the local pounds or police departments.

Clayton, Franklin Set To Thrill County Fans

Concord Ace Jack Huddleston stole the show Saturday night at Contra Costa Speedway.

Huddleston, driving his flashy yellow number 43, took first place in the third heat, beat the other heat winners to his first trophy, and topped the whole thing off wtih a very close second in the semi-main event.

THIS IS THE most spectacular night of racing Jack has ever put in, and if he has many more nights like it he'll wind up a leading contender for the championship.

ack Clayton of Pleasant Hill took fourth place in the semi-main. This was his first ride in a new car, number 24.

Roland Lokmor took first place in the first heap. This also marks the first win for the new Walnut Creek driver.

Wally Baker took his first main event of the season in a very tight race with Gene Dudley, Napa; PeeWee Waybright, Oakland, and Lee Humphers, Richmond. Johnny Franklin, last week's winner from Santa Rosa, looked very promising when he set the fast qualifying time of 15.93, but wound up in fifth position.

FIVE FLIPS occurred during the evening's presentation, and a large amount of fence will have to be replaced before tomorrow night.

Another 25 lap main event will top the nine event program at Pacheco. Time trials will start at 7:15 with the first race at 8.

Orinda Tennis Season Opener Is 'Mystery' Set

The Orinda Tennis Club will initiate the 1959 season tomorrow with a series of tournaments including a "Mystery Mixed Doubles" event.

President Charles Ivy says matches will start at 9 a.m. at the Miramonte High School courts and continue throughout the day.

Winners of the event will have their names engraved on a plaque. Entry fees will be $1.50 per person.

Further plans for the season include men's and women's singles and doubles, and junior events.

June 6 has been selected for the men's singles event. For information regarding tournaments, members may call Bill Brobeck, CL 4-3846, and for memberships, Percy Dawson, CL 4-3059.

Racqueteers Tie In Foothill Unit

The tennis title of the Foothill Division rested with three schools as the league wound up its round robin play Tuesday.

Three teams, Acalanes, Miramonte and Piedmont wound up with identical 6-2 records.

The crucial match was played at Orinda Tuesday when Miramonte downed the Acalanes team 4-3 to throw the final results into a three way tie.

Best Game Shot By Mesdames Cooper, Haws

Mrs. Paul Cooper had her best game with a 38-41 or 79, with handicap of 14 or 65 net, April 28 at Orinda Country Club.

Mrs. Terry Haws also had a "best game" with a 94-24—70.

Medal play, April 30.

Diablo Handicap Taken in 19th Hole Playoff

Mrs. H. E. Conner defeated Mrs. R. L. Miller in the championship flight of the annual handicap tournament at Diablo Country Club.

In the Diablo flight, Mrs. P. N. Kane slipped past Mrs. Lyle Lindeman two up and in the second flight Mrs. Art Brunckhorst went in 3-1 over Mrs. Robert Wolf.

Mrs. C. F. Cooper handed Mrs. William Gubbins a sudden death finish to her efforts in the third flight on a 19th hole play off.

Mrs. Ed Hillyer went in with 4 up on Mrs. R. L. Pratt in the fourth flight play. A consolation award was presented to Mrs. Gloria Morgan.

Area Boat Show to Attract Thousands of County Fans

The boating industry is growing by leaps and bounds in the East Bay, according to John Bodrero, marine appraiser for Alameda County.

"We have about 8500 boats, primarily outboards, registered in the county, almost double the total registered three years ago," he estimates. There are about 10,000 registered in Contra Costa County and around 4500 in San Francisco County.

"Actually, more than 8500 Alabut they're registered in other counties, where they're docked and kept the year around. Many of our people keep boats in Contra Costa County, Lake Tahoe and Shasta."

Because of this tremendous growth in boating interest, Bodero feels the Bay Area Sportsmen's Show, featuring boats and scheduled at the Oakland Exposition Building May 22-31, will attract many thousands of visitors.

Much new equipment, some of it to be seen for the first time, will be on view during the 10-day run of the Sportsmen's Show.

The boating boom made it necessary for Alameda County to open a marine department, something it never had until three years ago. The department now has four fulltime employees.

With increased docking facilities due in many Bay Area cities, the boom will continue for some time, Bodrero believes.

The Bay Area Sportsmen's Show, which first came to Oakland last year, already has sold out all of its exhibit space for boats.

Muir Memorial Hospital-- That's the Official Name!

The Hospital Name Contest has come to a close and a grand winner has been selected. The name chosen is Muir Memorial Hospital. This name was submitted by Mrs. E. W. Miller, 1615 Carmel Drive, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Miller wrote a note explaining "Since this is to be a Community Hosital for all of Contra Costa County, the name Muir Memorial Hospital seems appropriate as a tribute to a great naturalist, John Muir, who made his home in Martinez for 34 years, loved nature in all its forms and whose life and achievements have made him one of the most honored and famous residents of Contra Costa County."

IT WAS THE feeling of the committee that this name would be a worthy tribute to the famous resident and in keeping with the thought that just as John Muir sought to preserve the beauty and wonders that God wrought in nature so does man through hospitals and medicine seek to preserve the beauty and wonder of life that God has given him.

Two other names, those of Carolyn Canty of 190 Chaucer Drive, Pleasant Hill and Janet Kammerer of 260 Stevenson Drive, Pleasant Hill, were very similar to the name chosen and these individuals have received honorable mention awards for their efforts.

Numerous other entries were received and out of these honorable mention awards were chosen on the basis of originality of name and theme. These have been awarded to: Shelley Scharich of the Orinda Union School, age 9; Richard C. Walton of the Lafayette Burton School, age 10; Bruce Smith of the Oak Grove Intermediate School, 7th grade; Twyla Turner of the Park Mead 6th grade in Walnut Creek; Linda Scarlett of the 5th grade Indian Valley School in Walnut Creek; Adele Avansino of the Clayton Valley High School, Walnut Creek; Sharon Williams of the Diablo Green Valley School, age 11.

ALSO, TIM KELLEY of the Palmer School of Walnut Creek, 5th grade; Jean Grace of the Las Lomas High School, Walnut Creek; Shirley Kerlin of the San Ramon High School Danville; David Hesse of the Walnut Acres School Concord 3rd grade; Carol Farnsworth of Walnut Creek School, Walnut Creek.

Many adult entries were received in addition to the numerous school entries and we were very gratified at the community interest. Some of the other names suggested were "Hospital for Health and Care," "Patient's Paradise," "Ygnacio Valley Hospital," "Walnut Knolls Hospital," and one suggested "Waldorph" with the initials each signifying each city in the East Contra Costa area which will be serviced by this hospital. Two of the winners, Miss Grace and Miss Farnsworth, left no address. If they will call at the campaign office, they may receive their awards.

The campaign headquarters for the fund drive has been opened at 1353 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. All volunteers who wish to help please phone YE 4-5820 and leave your name and qualifications with Mrs. Gunnell.

Barnett announced, "Much help is needed and no matter how much work you feel you can do, we will be very grateful to have your services. The board of directors of the hospital wishes to thank all of those who entered the contest for their support."

Area Hi Students Win Two National College Awards

Recent college scholarship winners announced by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation included two area high school students — one in Walnut Creek and one in Orinda.

The contest saw 750 winners—52 from California—picked from more than 480,000 students, representing about 32 per cent of the nation's high school enrollment.

Named locally was Babette C. Ambler of 220 El Toyonal, Orinda. Miss Babette, a Miramonte High School student, will use her scholarship to study modern language at Stanford University.

Also a winner was Gary J. Ewell, 761 Laurel Drive, Walnut Creek. Ewell, a Las Lomas High School student, will major in physics, also at Stanford University.

Funds for Merit Scholarship awards are provided by 90 companies and foundations, and by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation which conducts the annual competition.

The scholarships awarded are for 4 years. Funds range from $100 to $1500 a year depending upon individual need. Most scholarships also include a gift of from $100 to $500 a year to the college chosen by the student.

Following qualifying tests a year ago, 10,000 winners competed in the semi-finals last October. A committee of 12 experts from the college admission field judged the finalists.

Competitors were judged on the basis of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and extra-curricular activities.

Miss Hi School Has Date With Capwell's in June

Capwell's Walnut Creek will present its annual Miss High School fashion show June 6 at 2 p.m. in the Collegienne Department on the second floor.

Thirty-three Junior Class girls have been selected by the store to particpate.

Eleven schools wll send three models each, with Alhambra, Antioch, Clayton Valley, Las Lomas, Miramonte, Mt. Diablo, Pacifica, Pittsburg, Pleasant Hill and San Ramon High Schools taking part.

The young ladies will model the latest in dress and sportswear fashions from Capwell's Teen and Collegienne Shops. The store will choose 11 High School Board members as finalists from this group, one girl from each school entering.

THE BOARD MEMBERS will be selected on the basis of modeling, personality, poise, grooming and popularity.

All models will receive gift souvenirs as remembrances of teen modeling careers at Capwell's. The 11 finalists will receive prizes, and be included in two additional shows by the high school board this fall.

Immediately following the Miss High School show an open house Coke party will be held in the employee's clubroom area on the second floor.

Admission to the entire event is free, and it will be covered by local photographers.

All teen fashion enthusiasts and parents are invited.

New Committee Named to Study Water Program

Senator Thomas H. Kuchel of California has been named one of four Republican members of a new Senate committee on natural water resources.

The senator will be one of three members of the Senate Interior and Insular Affairs Committee serving on the new special body which will make a comprehensive study of the nation's long-range water needs and development-conservation policies.

The committee will report by January 31, 1961, on plans for meeting water requirements expected by 1980.

Its surveys will include related problems of hydroelectric power, fish and wildlife protection, weather control, and saline water conversion.

Children Plan Dance Recital

Under the joint sponsorship of the Orinda and Valley art centers, "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" and "East o' the Sun and West o' the Moon" will be danced by students in the advanced composition classes of Lynda Hickox Robinson Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Orinda school auditorium.

There will be no admission charge.

The program will present original choreography by each child participating, as the cumulative effort of all dance workshop classes. In building a dance-drama on the familiar "Legend of Sleepy Hollow", Mrs. Robinson assigned various sequences of the story to certain groups of students. When each group had worked out its particular enactment of the narrative, all sections were brought together to form a well - synchronized, continuous action.

Similar method was used in the adaptation of "East o' the Sun and "West o' the Moon', with each child creating his own choreography to fit into the general line of the story and the selected music. The resulting dances are a unique blend of the children's abilities and individuality.

Performers are members of Mrs. Robinson's advanced classes from fifth grade and up, and are enrolled not only in dance composition, but also in at least one class a week in dance technique. The concert will be a culmination of their efforts from last September. All persons interested in dance are cordially invited.

LEGAL NOTICE

BEFORE THE GOVERNING BOARD OF MORAGA SCHOOL DISTRICT OF CONTRA COSTA COUNTY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF RESOLUTION TO LEASE REAL PROPERTY.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public meeting of the Governing Board of Moraga School District of Contra Costa County will be held at the office of said Board at Rheem School, Moraga, California, on May 11, 1959, at the hour of 7:00 o'clock p.m. of said day for the purpose of receiving and considering sealed proposals for the leasing of real property described in the resolution hereinafter set forth.

NOTICE IS HEREBY FURTHER GIVEN that at a meeting of said Governing Board held on April 20, 1959, the following resolution was adopted by at least a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all of its members. The resolution above referred to is as follows:

WHEREAS, Moraga School District of Contra Costa County is the owner and in possession of the following described real property, and the Governing Board of the District believes it to be for the best interests of said District that said property be offered for lease upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, and said property is not now, and will not, at the time of delivery of possession, be needed for school classroom buildings by said District.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Governing Board of Moraga School District does hereby declare its intention to offer for lease that certain real property and structure thereon commonly known and described as Moraga School, School Street, Moraga, Contra Costa County, California, consisting of a parcel of land approximately 250 feet by 202 feet in dimension, or as more particularly described in a preliminary report issued by Western Title Guaranty Company, Martinez, California, under their order No. 225867 under date of March 25, 1959. A copy of such title report is available for inspection by any interested person at the office of the School District.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the property shall be leased upon the following terms and conditions:

The minimum monthly rental for such real property and improvements is fixed at the sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00). The successful bidder shall not use the said property for commercial purposes. Bidders, in order to be considered, shall be required to use the property for community recreation, community groups, or community religious bodies. By the terms of the lease which may be entered into the lessee is required to keep the real property and improvements in good order and condition. All utility services and the cost of the operation of the property shall be borne by the lessee except that the School District will keep its existing fire insurance policy in effect during the entire term of the lease, or any extension thereof.

Reference is hereby made to Section 18611 of the Education Code. It provides for a call for oral bids before the final acceptance of written proposals. Each written proposal shall be sealed and delivered to the Governing Board at its office at Rheem School, Moraga, California, on or before May 11, 1959, at 7:00 o'clock p.m.

Each proposal shall be plainly marked on the envelope containing it, "Proposal for Leasing Moraga School." The lease with the successful bidder will provide for the payment of rent to the District by the lessee at the District office on or about the first day of each calendar month during the term of the lease. Any occupancy for less than a full calendar month shall be prorated. The lease with the successful bidder will provide that either the District or lessee may give written notice to the other, at least thirty (30) days before the termination date thereof that the lease will be of no further effect except for obligations incurred by either party prior to the final termination date.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this Governing Board will hold a public meeting on May 11, 1959, at the hour of 7:00 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of receiving sealed proposals and oral bids as aforesaid.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that notice of the adoption of this resolution and of the time and place of said meeting be given by publishing the notice not less than once a week for three (3) successive weeks before the meeting in Orinda Sun, a newspaper of general circulation published in Contra Costa County in which said District is located, there being no newspaper of general circulation published within the District; and by posting copies of the resolution signed by the Governing Board, or by a majority thereof, in three (3) public places in the District, not less than fifteen (15) days before the date of meeting.

Passed and adopted by the Governing Board of Moraga School District of Contra Costa County, at a meeting of said Board held on the 20th day of April, 1959.

Exchange Students Send Greetings From Abroad

Letters have been recently received from Irmgard Sieber and Carlos Demiguel, the foreign exchange students who attended Acalanes last year.

"Imy", as her Acalanes friends called her, came from Mattersburg, Austria, and lived in the homes of the Rudolph Monosmiths of Orinda, and the George J. Richardsons of Lafayette.

She writes as follows to the American Field Service Committee, and to Mrs. Mike Roberts, chairman;

"BELIEVE ME, I have not forgotten all you have done for me, and thank you with all my heart for that. When I look back now, and think of this last year, though it seems like a dream, I can now fully realize what a great opportunity you gave me to learn and see things.

"I have been studying very hard. But now I have almost done it—I mean the examinations I had to make up about my Junior year.

"It is so often that I wish to be in America again. And my family knows already, everything about Orinda, Lafayette, and Acalanes. It happens very often that they already know what I am going to say before I start talking.

"Especially to you, Mrs. Roberts, I want to assure you that you have been just like a mother to me.

Your grateful A.F.S. student,
"Imy"

CARLOS DEMIGUEL, from Madrid, Spain, was a member of the Lawton Shurtleff family.

He writes as follows to the Shurtleffs;

"About studies, I will have to tell you that I figure to get an "A" here is much easier than at Stanford!

"The reason is pretty obvious—I only have three subjects. I admit they are difficult, but there are no extra-curricular activities whatsoever. There are not those boring term papers or anything like that, so it is only a matter of studying daily three hours of each subject, and this gives quite a bit of knowledge about these subjects. That's all!

"AS FOR DRIVING, I guess I am still a hot-rodder. The other day I just cleared one of those Spanish show-offs with a big American car. By the way, the Americans seem to be here not only to build air bases, but also to get into accidents. They get into accidents just like going to school, every day.

"This means that they are not good drivers or that they want to do the same things that they do in the United States, like respecting the guy who comes through your right-hand side, and if you do that in Spain you are lost!

"This past week has been full of exciting things. One of them is that I am on a semi-professional swimming team. It all happened like in a western movie where the tough guy gets into town and the boss wants to hire him.

"Well, I went the other day to a pool where the kids in our school go, and it was the first time that I went in. I started swimming and did some butterfly. When I got out of the pool a guy came over to me and said, Would you like to enter the team?" I knew it was real hard to get on, and I said, "It's alright with me."

"Papers, photographs, and all that bureaucracy. Finally I got my I.D. card as a semi-pro, and I was so happy. It says that the signer (me) is able to participate in any competition given by this club. Pretty neat, huh?

"I have so many plans for next summer that I don't know if any of them will work out. Obviously, it's going to be a working summer. The thing that most interests me is to go in a fishing boat to fish tuna. Then, second plan, I want to work in a car factory.

"You might think that all this is very logical, but that is because you don't know Spanish teen-agers. They call me crazy, mad and cheap—they are convinced that manual work is

Dr. Young Will Lecture On Israel This Weekend

The Jewish organizations of the Lafayette-Contra Costa area will be host to an unusual guest Saturday evening at the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center, 3800 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Dr. William Lindsay Young, for four decades in the vanguard of the movement in the United States to achieve friendship and mutual understanding among the various religions and races of the nation, will be guest speaker on behalf of the local Israel Bond committees.

Dr. Young is world director of the Conference of Christians and Jews and had written and lectured on Israel throughout the world. He has made a special study of Arab groups within Israel and has for more than 20 years been regarded as an outstanding educator and speaker.

EMBELLISHING the program also will be one of the San Francisco Opera Company's dramatic sopranos, Annabelle Ronson.

Miss Ronson travelled with the Vienna Opera Company throughout Europe and has a tremendous number of French and Italian operas in her repertoire, to which she recently has added Jewish and Israeli songs.

One of the most beautiful films ever produced in Israel, entitled Israel—An Adventure, also will be shown. The picture is highlighted by a series of vignettes showing the beauty and contrasts of the State of Israel, in color, and presents an unusual scene of a Yemenite wedding dance performed by the renowned Inbal dance group.

Intermediate Kids Will Carry Out Physical Fitness

National Physical Fitness Week will be observed May 4th through 8th by Walnut Creek intermediate grade boys and girls.

It will be a continuation of the type of physical education program that has been carried on throughout the school year, says Dr. Richard Fickel, assistant superintendent.

The physical education program was initiated last fall to prepare for participation in the California Physical Performance test. Students were classified by age, height and weight into eight categories. Each student competed within his or her own classification.

Special events in the performance test were the 50 yard dash, set-ups, push-ups, soft ball throw and standing broad-jump.

Using the same classification as in the California Physical Performance test, a Junior Olympic program was set up with winners in each grade and classification.

Events were the same except for set-ups.

Records of individual performances are kept for both the California Physical Performance test and the Junior Olympics events.

Each event is repeated during the year to show if there is improvement.

Meridian Scouts Schedule Yearly Recognition Dinner

The Merdian District, Boy Scouts of America, will hold its annual recognition dinner May 10 at 7 p.m. at Holy Ghost Hall on Boulevard Way in Walnut Creek.

It will be a potluck dinner and district committee members, commissioners, unit leaders and committees, den mothers, and the executive staff will gather with their husbands and wives for the installation of new officers and district recognition of outstanding service.

Three scouts have been chosen to receive the McIntyre award for outstanding service during the past year.

RECIPIENTS will be Tom Clarke of Danville, scoutmaster of troop 229 for handicapped boys, sponsored by the Walnut Creek Jaycees; William Hassler of Walnut Creek, assistant district commissioner for exploring; and Paul Dreyer of Lafayette, chairman of the district camping and activities committee.

Officers to be installed include the new district chairman, Joe DeMaria of Orinda; vice-chairman Pete Funk of Lafayette; and re-appointed district commissoiner Dave Lercari of Lafayette.

New members-at-large also will be introduced for the first time.

Master of ceremonies will be Ian McLaughlin of Walnut Creek, member of the Mt. Diablo Council Executive Board.

ADDITIONAL awards to be presented will include an Arrowhead honor award to Jack Steller of Lafayette for completion of training and projects in commissioner service.

Cups for placement in the National Rifle Association - Explorer Scout marksmanship contest will be awarded to Troop 224 for the team award, Fred Lercari of Troop 224 for eighth place in national competition, and Sandy McElroy for top council award.

Special commissioner ribbons for the outstanding booths in the recent exposition also will be presented.

Scouting personnel from Orinda, Moraga, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Danville and Diablo are invited to make up a dinner group and attend.

Not Just a Circus, Says Children's Hospital Group

Going to the circus on opening night, May 20, will be only part of the fun to be had by branch members of Children's Hospital of the East Bay, sponsors of the Polack Bros. show.

Today it was announced by Mrs. Francis A. Knapp, general chairman of the branches, that a gala buffet supper will take place preceding the show.

Branch members and other friends of the hospital will take over the ballroom and foyer of the Oakland Auditorium for a 6 to 8 p.m. party, then proceed down the ramp to the Arena for the 1959 edition of the circus.

MRS. STANTON LORE and Mrs. Niles Millar, both Oakland members of Azalea Branch, are directing plans for the buffet. Reservations may be made through Mrs. Lore.

Opening night has been designated as Children's Hospital Night by the branches to which the public is cordially invited.

Ten performances will be given during the five-day engagement which closes with a twilight matinee on Sunday at 4:30 p.m.

Other times are: matinees on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday at 3:30 p.m.; Saturday at 2:30 p.m.; and Sunday at 1 p.m.

Evening performances will be Wednesday through Saturday at 8:15 p.m.

Bankers Gather, Select Officers

The final Board of Governors meeting of the Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Institute of Banking for the current year recently was held at the Bank of America Branch in Walnut Creek.

All committees reported, as the regular order of business was followed.

June Woehrman of the ballot committee reported that newly elected board members included Florence Chericoni, Bank of America, Walnut Creek; Carl Fank, American Trust Co., Walnut Creek; Andy Desmarais, Crocker Anglo National Bank, Walnut Creek; and Janet Emerson, American Trust Co., Orinda.

The board also elected new officers for the coming year.

Miss Woehrman of Walnut Creek's American Trust Co. was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Acalanes School Drivers Compete Tomorrow

Seven bus drivers from Acalanes Union High School District will participate in tomorrow's fifth annual Northern California School Bus Roadeo at the Hayward Airport.

The drivers, who will compete for trophies with some 150 school bus drivers from throughout Northern California, are Pearle Barcroft, Phillip Brandt, Cecelia B. Browning, Charles Helmke, James Lindsay, June Middlekauf, and Sam Rigley.

The roadeo is sponsored by the California School Employees' Association in cooperation with the California Highway Patrol, California State Automobile Association, and Northern California chapters of the National Safety Council.

Under contest rules, school districts and school bus contractors can select one driver for each bus classification to represent them. Roadeo events include both written tests and driving skill tests for men and women.

According to C.S.E.A., "School districts have found that participation in these annual skill tests has added new stature to a valuable group of employees, and has contributed toward safe school bus driving practices and procedures."

Trophies will be awarded to the winners in each classification. A similar roadeo is being held in Southern California, and the contestant with the highest point total for both roadeos is state champion.

TWO-MILLIONTH

The two-millionth motor vehicle for the United States in 1959 was produced during the week of March 30. Cumulative total through April 4 reached 2,009,269 units or some 30 per cent higher than the total for the some period of 1958.

New Assistant Appointed to School Post

Appointment of Dr. Max Appleby to head Acalanes High School District curriculum and instructional services was announced yesterday by Superintendent Neil Parsons.

Appleby has been named assistant superintendent in charge of educational services by high school district trustees and will begin his tour of office for 1959-60 school year.

THE NEW assistant superintendent comes from the Torrance Unified School District in Southern California where he was employed in secondary curriculum work.

Dr. Appleby is a graduate of the University of California and received his M.A. and Ph.D. at the University of Southern California.

HE HAS held education positions as a teacher, vice principal and principal and district official and has worked in the Burbank, Los Angeles, San Rafael and Torrance school systems. He has one son, currently enrolled at the University of California.

According to Superintendent Parsons, the new assistant superintendent will work with Miramonte, Acalanes, Las Lomas and Tice Valley high schools, the four secondary plants of the Acalanes District, "in the field of instruction and curriculum, co-ordinating the instructional programs in all four high schools, and effecting the continued co-ordination of the high school and elementary education programs."

Ready for an A Bomb? Do you keep your car gas tank ½ full? Have you emergency food and water for 7 days?

Young plants thrive best in Sunshine Peat Moss, because it allows their delicate rootlets to grow and expand freely, to drink and feed deeply. The reason: Sunshine is Sphagnum—best because it holds the most water and fertilizer, has the highest, long-lasting organic content.
